TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF YOUR REGISTRATION

By enrolling in classes at the University of Wyoming (UW), a student makes a financial commitment to pay the tuition and fee charges associated with that enrollment.

The following terms and conditions are financial requirements of each student's education related to their registration for a term at the University of Wyoming. The payment of tuition and fees is the obligation of the student. By processing a course registration either via the Web or by submitting a course request form to an academic student registration area, a student acknowledges they have read and agree to the following terms and conditions:

- Registering constitutes a financial agreement between you ("Student") and the University of Wyoming ("University"). Tuition, fees and other charges you incur, including but not limited to housing, meal plans, and bookstore charges ("Charges"), shall be added to your student account and are considered a loan for educational benefit.
- Once you formally register for classes, you assume the responsibility for understanding the University's official policies concerning schedule changes, satisfactory academic progress and the financial policies of the University as described in the "University of Wyoming's Catalog" for the term of enrollment.
- All Charges are due by the third Friday of the semester.
- Installment payment agreements will be automatic with a non-refundable setup fee for any Charges not paid in full by the third Friday of the semester.
 - Any student with an unpaid balance after the payment date will be automatically enrolled in the University's installment plan. First installment payment of all prior term charges plus 1/3 of the current term charges is due prior to 4:00 p.m. on the third Friday of the semester.
 - The second installment payment is due three weeks after the first installment date.
 - The third (and final) installment payment is due six weeks after the first installment date.
 - A $15.00 installment plan setup fee will be charged to all unpaid balances on the third Friday of the semester.
 - You will have a financial hold placed on your account if there is an outstanding balance due after the final payment date. This financial hold will restrict your ability to register, add/drop classes, request transcripts, receive diplomas, etc.
- Charges may be prepaid at any time in whole or in part without premium or penalty.
- In the event that you become delinquent in paying Charges or default in repaying Charges you may be liable for attorney fees, collection fees and any other costs incurred by the University which may include, but are not limited to , court costs and collection agency costs.
- Students withdrawing after the stated refund dates remain liable for full tuition and fee charges.
- The University accepts payments via student financial aid and third party sponsorship, but the responsibility for payment remains with you. It is your responsibility to keep track of your account balance and any funding sources. If financial aid is not granted or if third party sponsors do not pay within a reasonable period, you will be required to pay the full amount due. Please be aware that you may still owe tuition even if you lose your financial aid because you dropped classes or did not attend. Check with the Financial Aid Office before you drop classes.
- You must attend classes to be eligible for federal financial aid. Once aid has been disbursed, if you drop classes, you may immediately owe part or all of your federal financial aid back. This is true even if the financial aid disbursement covered your tuition bill and you did not receive a credit balance refund.
- In the event that you are also a University employee, the University may deduct the delinquent amount from your paycheck.
- You consent to receive email notifications to your @uwyo.edu email address of the availability of an e-bill (electronic billing statement) and consent to review billing statement information on the University's web payment system
- It is your responsibility to check your @uwyo.edu email account daily and maintain a current postal address to ensure receipt of all University correspondence.

By clicking "I Agree" below, I certify that I have read the above terms and conditions and agree to abide by and be bound by the above terms and conditions.

You have already agreed to the Student Financial Responsibility Agreement.
