Union Priority Scheduling

For Scheduling Period August 20, 2022 – August 19, 2023

The Wyoming Union Events Office will begin the annual Priority Scheduling process on March 21, 2022. Space requests for the next academic year, August 20, 2022 through August 19, 2023, are accepted during this five-week process. Please read the notes under your category carefully as fees will be charged during the FY23. Each week we receive requests from specific groups; these groups are defined below. Each group submits during the five days of their assigned week. These requests are then scheduled the following week. Once a request is made, the reservation should be considered tentative until the requestor receives a confirmation from the Events Office. Requestors should not start planning for events on requested dates until an official event confirmation is received. No confirmations will be sent out until the end of week 5. Please keep in mind that all events are subject to change due to evolving circumstances of the COVID-19 pandemic.
