Central Student Technology Committee (CSTC)
Meeting: Monday - December 3, 2007
Location: Wyo Hall 312

Attendees: Maggie Deming, Jesse Ballard, Charles Christensen, Marcus Curley, Cheryl Hilman, Warrie Means, Erin Mills, Mark Sunderman, Thomas Weber, Christi Boggs, John Nutter

1. SPSS License cost increase

    Maggie explained that the cost of the SPSS licenses was more than originally requested because of the break in bulk pricing.

    Cheryl Hilman moved to approve an additional $1000 for the SPSS Licenses
    Magnus Snyder seconded the motion

    Approved: all
    Opposed: none
    Abstain: none

2. AS – Math server request

    Maggie shared the math response with the committee.

    John Nutter moved to approve refunding the Math server costs $3,898
    Magnus Snyder seconded motion

    Discussion took place regarding whether this was supporting instructional technology and if the same functionality is found in WebCT.   It was determined that the math server functionality was completely different than that found in WebCT

    Approved: all
    Opposed: none
    Abstain: none

3. Classroom Capture Technology – Media site

    Maggie provided a quick over-view of what Classroom Capture Technology is (Tivo for classes). Christi Boggs presented an over-view of a study she performed with Pod Casting to give a comparison with the Classroom Capture Technology the CSTC is reviewing.

    Discussion took place regarding class attendance and if the use of the technology would cause a decrease in attendance. Info that Maggie and Christi have read indicates that attendance does not decrease.

    Discussion took place regarding the ownership of the material and who controls how they are used. It was decided that these are policy decisions that are outside the scope of the CSTC

Charles Christensen moved to approve as outlined - $84,061 for first year costs
Magnus Snyder seconded the motion

Moved to question

Approved: all but three
Opposed: Charles Christensen and Mark Sunderman
Abstain: Warrie Means

Maggie adjourned the meeting at 3:40 pm
