

English Honors Thesis Independent Study Registration Form (ENGL 4630)

You must complete this form and have it signed by the appropriate parties in order to register for ENGL4630 in the semester you will defend your thesis (typically the fall or spring of senior year).

Name		Semester/Year
W#		No. of Credit Hrs.
Thesis Supervisor		Second Reader
Date of this Application		Planned Graduation Date

In the box below, (you may expand it to take as much space as needed) please type:

1. A description of your proposed topic, including primary works you plan to consult.
2. A detailed schedule of due dates for proposed assignments (e.g. outline, draft chapters, introduction, conclusion, finished draft, etc.) You are encouraged to create this schedule backwards, beginning by selecting a tentative date for your defense with your supervisor, your second reader, and the English Honors Director.
3. A schedule of the dates and times when you plan to meet with your supervisor.

Once your supervisor and second reader have reviewed and signed a printed copy of this completed form below, please schedule a meeting with the English

Visit the English Honors Director during office hours (or schedule a meeting at another time via email) to have her review and sign the form. You will then bring the form to English Department main office in Hoyt 126, to get an override to allow you to register for ENGL4630. The English Honors Director will be listed as your instructor of record.

Signatures
Thesis Supervisor
Second Reader
English Honors Program Director	