Looking ahead

After 20+ years of leading water-focused professional development, TSS no longer has grant funding to offer professional development on water

- Funding from the WY Department of Environmental Quality’s Non-Point Source program funded WY Stream Team for 20 years; no longer supporting education

- Funding for WY Water in the Classroom and private funds supported watershed and water-focused professional development from 2013-2017

On-going funding for water and watershed education professional development (for K-12 teachers) is vital to support Wyoming’s water resources in the future
