Discussion

1. USP Amendments & Commentary:
 - a. No amendments were emailed to the chair.
 - b. Amendments offered in session:
 - i. Sen. Clements moved – Offered an amendment to switch clauses on specific section on page 5 of USP proposed changes document. Motion was seconded by Sen. Cawley and carried.
 - ii. Sen. Clements moved – Would like a change to language on minimum grade level requirements to "restore minimum grade requirements across some, or an average grade overall of C, across all USP courses." Multiple seconds, 1 opposed, motion carried.

- iii. Sen. Anderson moved – Desired to change section to read “absence of a minimum required grade reduces rigor”; motion seconded and carried.
- iv. Sen. Cawley moved – to strike class size from FS recommendations. Seconded, several opposed, motion carried.
- c. Discussion over the USP changes was had
 - i. Faculty Senate wants to remove experiential learning requirements from the proposed changes to the USP, unless specific concerns are addressed.
 - ii. “D” Component is ill-defined. Critical Thinking (C component) potentially rolled into the D (Digital Literacy) components.
 - iii. “E” component places a significant burden on individual departments, and unfair to students that lack uniformity of opportunity.
 - iv. Minimum Grade Requirements discussed
 - v. Section 5 - Should not include specific requirements for allocation of resources.

Vote

1. Resolution 479 – Sen. Cawley moves to approve the faculty senate’s response to USP Committee. 2 opposed, resolution carries.

Chair called for meeting to be adjourned at 4:55p; motion made, seconded, carried.
