Call Title:	ENVIRONMENTAL INVESTIGATIVE JOURNALISM
Programme:	Journalismfund.eu
Objective:	Journalismfund.eu's flexible grants programmes enable journalists to produce relevant public interest stories with a European mind-set from international, national, and regional perspectives.
Eligible Activities:	This grant can be awarded to cross-border teams of professional journalists and/or news outlets to conduct investigations into environmental affairs related to Europe (all the countries, not only the EU). The resulting stories must be published in at least two outlets in two different countries, at least one must be a European media. While news media and newsrooms still predominantly operate nationally, most power structures and societal and environmental problems transcend national boundaries. This grant programme is therefore aimed at cross-border teams of investigative journalists and newsrooms to investigate and document illegal, unreported and unregulated abuse of nature that involves European affairs in and outside Europe. Actions must take place in Europe.
Eligible Applicants:	Cross-border teams of at least two professional journalists and/or news outlets can submit a proposal for a journalistic investigation about an issue that concerns the environment and relates to the European continent (islands included).
Total Budget:	€1,600,000
Deadline:	06/08/2026
More information and official documents:	https://www.journalismfund.eu/environmental-investigative-journalism

Call Title:	EUROPEAN CROSS-BORDER GRANTS
Programme:	Journalismfund.eu
Objective:	The aim of Journalismfund.eu is to promote quality journalism in Europe by giving journalists the chance to carry out journalistic research projects. Journalismfund.eu will support professional journalists, who have good ideas for cross-border research and for research on European affairs. The stories must be relevant for European target groups.
Eligible Activities:	The project should be one that, in principle, could not be realised in this format within the remit of regular journalism – a project that can include cross-border research, networking between colleagues, established and innovative investigative methods and that is at the same time original, innovative and intensive.

	Journalismfund.eu supports costs related to journalistic research for all media. This can include travel, translation, access to pay-databases or simply time to research. They do not support fixed costs such as office costs, investments such as cameras or computers or production costs. Actions must take place in Europe.
Eligible Applicants:	Teams of journalists from at least two countries in geographical Europe are eligible to apply. When relevant for the story, team members from elsewhere can be accepted too.
Total Budget: €1,680,000
Deadline: 01/10/2026
More information and official documents:	https://grants.journalismfund.eu/en/european-cross-border-grants
