

Internship Awards, Summer 2026: Call for Applications

Do you want to take your studies to the next level...in Scotland?

Create your own internship with UW in Scotland, and earn funding up to $5000 to support your experience.

The internship period should be no less than one month (20 workdays), and residence in Scotland is required.

Strategies for Success:

Starting at least one month before the deadline: Develop your application in conversation with:

- your UW faculty,
- the relevant Scottish institution (company, non-profit, college, etc.),
- the Director of UW in Scotland (Professor Caroline McCracken-Flesher, cmf@uwyo.edu)
- In some cases, students MUST work through a provider (Medical Fields, etc.). CGS/Education Abroad can advise.

Applications should:

- describe the project in detail (what do you want to study/learn?)
- specify the educational need (how does this advance your degree/career goals?)
- specify the host organization (company, non-profit etc.) and its necessity to the project
- detail logistics (when will you travel; where will you stay; what will you do & where?)
- detail your budget (travel, accommodation, costs charged by the host institution, etc.)
- Submitted applications should be no more than two pages in length

Also required:

- a statement of commitment from the organization where the internship would occur
- a reference letter from a relevant UW faculty member who will also supervise your project, submitted directly to Professor McCracken-Flesher: cmf@uwyo.edu

Qualifying Candidates & Programs:

- students in good standing, enrolled at UW through the period of the internship
- experiences that are NOT regular university courses or provider-supplied study-abroad opportunities

Students who have taken a UW in Scotland study abroad are strongly encouraged to apply. Prior participation in a UW in Scotland course is not required in order to apply.

Deadline: 31 January 2026

(rolling deadline; early applications may be accepted, and the competition terminated)

Submit: Submit completed applications, and have reference & support letters sent to: Prof. Caroline McCracken-Flesher, UW in Scotland & Center for Global Studies: cmf@uwyo.edu.

NOTE: If you achieve UWS funding, a signed internship agreement between UW and the host organization will need to be in place before funds are disbursed. Your department may have internship protocols. If not, CGS can supply models from other departments. Cowboys Abroad registration is also required prior to disbursement.
