

BIOLOGICAL CONTROL

Entomopathogenic organisms grow on or in an insect, usually resulting in the death of the host. For example, a white grub larva being killed by nematodes. Nematodes are relatively host specific and fit nicely into integrated pest management programs.

IPM

