

CHEMICAL CONTROL

Chemical controls may be considered when other management tactics have not achieved adequate control. Pesticides are used to destroy, repel, or otherwise reduce pest infestations. Examples include, herbicides, insecticides, and fungicides. All are readily available and easy to use.

IPM