

CHEMICAL CONTROL

Particle drift is the movement of particles or vapor outside the target area. Drift may damage adjacent crops, ornamental plants, or sensitive sites. Small droplets are more likely to drift than larger droplets. Droplet size, formation, nozzle type, spray pressure, and weather conditions affect drift.

IPM

