

CULTURAL CONTROL

Sanitation plays an important role in reducing the insect population and spread of diseases. Examples include the removal of debris in the greenhouse, cutting trees infected with pine wilt, and the elimination of food sources. A chlorox foot bath prevents the spread of boxwood blight.

IPM

