

CULTURAL CONTROL

Companion planting involves established or planting or two or more plant species in close proximity to one another to obtain a better yield or pest control. For example, planting marigolds next to zucchini discourages insects from feeding on the plants.

IPM

