

CULTURAL CONTROL

A healthy, thick lawn goes a long way in helping to prevent the growth of weeds. Core aeration is an important cultural practice in turf. It reduces the soil compaction and plant stress while increasing air and water percolation. Aeration promotes the health of soil and turf.

IPM

