

PHYSICAL-MECHANICAL CONTROL

Mulch can suppress weeds by forming a physical barrier on the soil surface. This limits the amount of light available for germinating seeds and conserves soil moisture. Common types of mulch include grass clippings, straw, shredded hardwood, and landscape fabric.

IPM