

PHYSICAL-MECHANICAL CONTROL

Cold storage, heat treatments, and flaming are physical controls. Cold storage can protect seeds from pests. Steam sterilization of growing media helps control soilborne pests and diseases. Flaming is the use of fire to control weeds in organic production, and along fences or paved areas.

IPM