

PHYSICAL-MECHANICAL CONTROL

Mechanical and physical controls are directly responsible for removing or killing a pest, physically blocking a pest, or making the environment unsuitable for their survival. These types of controls are rapid, effective, and have relatively little impact on natural enemies.

IPM

