^{iv} Requires 3L standing, offered for a letter grade only. Prosecution Assistance clinic enrollment is limited to 6 students; 5 determined on a first-come, first-served basis by registration. If the registration is oversubscribed additional students will be placed on a waitlist. Completion of, or concurrent enrollment in, Criminal Adjudication and/or Criminal Procedure strongly recommended.

^v Offered for S/U credit ONLY. One credit per competition. Credit is given to student competitors in approved inter-school competitions. Please see our Registrar, Dave Bluemel, if you have any questions regarding which are approved competitions. Credit is applied in the semester after the student participates in the regional or national competition.

^{vi} Offered for S/U credit ONLY. A complete listing of approved externship placements is available at Placement Options \(uwyo.edu\). If you are interested in a summer placement, you must submit the online application to our Externship Director, Kipp Coddington, by April 4th. Information about the application process can be found here, Students \(uwyo.edu\). Students may NOT take a legal clinic in the same semester in which they participate in an extern program, unless they obtain prior written permission from both the Externship Director and the Clinic Director.

^x The Clinic Independent Study is meant to allow students to receive credit for continuing work completed in conjunction with a clinic or live practicum. To qualify for Clinic Independent Study credit a student must have completed at least one semester in a clinic or live practicum, and must submit a form to the clinic or practicum instructor and our Registrar, Dave Bluemel. The student must register for the credit and submit to receive credit.

^{xi} Summer Trial Institute basics:

1. Registration for this course is on a first come, first served basis and is limited to rising 3L's for the following academic year. Evidence and Professional Responsibility are prerequisites.

Currently, the course is capped at 24 students, but we do keep a waitlist. We need to have exactly 24 students to make this course work (or a multiple of 4 if the cap is either not met or potentially extended). It is very important that you make a firm commitment to this course. If for some reason you cannot take the course but you are registered, you need to drop the course immediately so you are not taking the opportunity away from a fellow student.

2. Mandatory Seat Deposit

There is a mandatory seat deposit of $500 for this course that you must submitted digitally via the UW Marketplace found at this link, College of Law. If you do not pay this deposit by May 27th, you WILL BE DROPPED from the course. This deposit is to ensure your enrollment in the course and will go toward your tuition if you remain in the course. This deposit will not be returned after May 27th, even if you drop or withdraw from the course.

3. Course Dates.

This class officially starts July 31st with emailed reading assignments. The classroom portion of the course begins on Tuesday, August 5th at 1:00 pm and run until end of the day on Tuesday, August 19th. You must physically be here at the law school the 5th -19th, so plan your summer schedules accordingly.

- No absences

- i. This is a full, three-credit semester class crammed into a two-week period. You will be busy from morning to potentially midnight for the full two weeks. On days you are not doing a problem, you will be serving your fellow students in a supporting role. If you miss any part of any day, it is the equivalent to missing weeks of class during the semester.

4. Tuition/Drop Deadline

The drop deadline for this course will be Tues., May 27th. Tuition will not be refunded after that date. If you choose to leave the course after this date, it will be considered a withdrawal and appear that way on your transcript and you will still be charged full tuition for the course.

Required Texts

The two books required that you must secure are...

- Trial Techniques & Trials by Mauet and Easton, 12th ed. 9798892073356
- Materials in Trial Advocacy by Mauet, Wolfson and Easton, 10th ed. 9781543857993

The one book that you are provided as a PDF is...

- Case Analysis by Jim McComas (will be posted to WyoCourses this summer)

Please have the McComas Case Analysis packet and the Trial Techniques & Trials Book read (in their entirety!) before the first day of class, Wednesday, August 6th.

All that being said, I hope I have not scared any of you away from taking the course. It is an absolutely fantastic, fun, and rigorous course. It is worth every minute, and the face time with practicing members of the Wyoming Bar and surrounding states is unmatched.
