^{xi} Summer Trial Institute basics:

1. There will be a mandatory first-class meeting on Tuesday, March 24, from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the Large Moot Courtroom (LS 178). It is important for you to attend this class, as we will discuss important matters about the class that you need to know before you pay your seat deposit and commit to the class. [Note: You are welcome to attend the class even if you are not yet registered for it and you simply want to get information about the class.] At the end of the March 24 class, there will be two drawings, with each of the winners receiving one of the required textbooks as a prize. You must be present to win.
2. Registration for this course is on a first come, first served basis and is limited to rising 3L's for the following academic year. Evidence and Professional Responsibility are prerequisites.

Currently, the course is capped at 24 students, but we do keep a waitlist. We need to have exactly 24 students to make this course work (or a multiple of 4 if the cap is not met). It is very important that you make a firm commitment to this course. If for some reason you cannot take the course but you are registered, you need to drop the course immediately so you are not taking the opportunity away from a fellow student.

3. Mandatory Seat Deposit

There is a mandatory seat deposit of $500 for this course that you must submitted digitally via the UW Marketplace found at this link, College of Law. If you do not pay this deposit by May 26th, you WILL BE DROPPED from the course. This deposit is to ensure your enrollment in the course and will go toward your tuition if you remain in the course. This deposit will not be returned after May 26th, even if you drop or withdraw from the course.

4. Course Dates.

This class officially starts July 31st with emailed reading assignments. The classroom portion of the course begins on Saturday, August 8th at 10:00 am and runs until end of the day on Friday, August 21st. You must physically be here at the law school the 8th-21st, so plan your summer schedules accordingly. NOTE: There will be two days of Saturday classes: August 8 and August 15.

- No absences

- i. This is a full, three-credit semester class crammed into a two-week period. You will be busy from morning to potentially midnight for the full two weeks. On days you are not doing a problem, you will be serving your fellow students in a supporting role. If you miss any part of any day, it is the equivalent to missing weeks of class during the semester.

5. Tuition/Drop Deadline

The drop deadline for this course will be Tues., May 26th. Tuition will not be refunded after that date. If you choose to leave the course after this date, it will be considered a withdrawal and appear that way on your transcript and you will still be charged full tuition for the course.

Required Texts

The two books required that you must secure are...

- Trial Techniques & Trials by Mauet and Easton, 12th ed. 9798892073356
- Materials in Trial Advocacy by Mauet, Wolfson and Easton, 10th ed. 9781543857993

Please have the Trial Techniques & Trials Book read before the first day of class, Saturday, August 8th.

All that being said, I hope I have not scared any of you away from taking the course. It is an absolutely fantastic, fun, and rigorous course. It is worth every minute, and the face time with practicing members of the Wyoming Bar and surrounding states is unmatched.
