Application For Legal Externship Program

- You may not take more than six (6) externship credits in your law school career.
- You must register for at least two credits (100 hours) but no more than three credits (150 hours) during the fall or spring semesters. However, you may take up to the full six credits (300 hours) during the summer semester.
- There is an on-line classroom component for the Externship Program course.
- You may not take an externship and a clinic in the same semester or term unless you obtain permission from both the Clinic Faculty Director and Ken Chestek, Externship Program Director.
- Credit for externships is s/u and will count against the maximum of 13 s/u credits.
- Check the externship website to determine if the externships for which you are applying require additional materials. (<http://www.uwyo.edu/law/experiential/legal-externships/>)
- The registration process will be explained during your Mandatory Advising Session. If you have questions, please contact Ken Chestek or Tim Crawford.
