

Note to Graduates

For a high-resolution file of the 2023 Graduation Program suitable for printing, please contact Chavawn Kelley at ckelley@uwyo.edu

Two events affected the availability of the 2023 Commencement Program.

1. The full high-resolution program was available on the College of Law website at the time of commencement; however, in June, UW migrated to a new web management system. This system limits the file size that can be posted to the website. If you would like the full file, please contact Chavawn Kelley at ckelley@uwyo.edu.
2. Previously, the program file has been set up and available for printing at UW Copy and Print Center. In June, the UW Copy and Print Center got new copiers, and they do not yet know if they can print and saddle-stitch this job (two staples in the centerfold). We will provide an update here, as we know more.
