

BUILDING COMMUNITY ACROSS DIFFERENCE: LESSONS FROM NORTHERN IRELAND

You are invited to a discussion that will explore the challenges associated with any community where there are differences of perspective, identity and power. What lessons can be drawn from a place like Northern Ireland that can be of tangible use to other community leaders and advocates in other settings?

WHEN

Friday, October 16, 2015

12 noon—2 pm

WHERE

Teton County Library

Ordway Auditorium

125 Virginian Lane, Jackson

THIS IS A BROWNBAG EVENT

FEATURING • Tom Frawley • Former Ombudsmen of Northern Ireland • Rev. John Dunlop • Former Minister in North Belfast • Bill Schwartz/ Moderator • Attorney and Mediator •

SPONSORED BY

InterConnections 21
Students & communities engaging in critical global issues.

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC