

Book X.
Title LXIII.

Concerning the responsibility of the successors (heirs) of the parent.
(De periculo successorum parentis.)

10.63.1. Emperor Alexander to Claudianus.

If your father promised to pay for the giving of a spectacle in your name out of his own property, and therefore succeeded in having you appointed as priest, the president of the province will recognize that the burden of payment will fall on all of the heirs.
