

WySR's purpose is to collect, build, and showcase the intellectual output across campus, especially the research, scholarly, and creative output at UW and to make it available worldwide.

Wyoming Scholars Repository (WySR) Home Page <http://repository.uwyo.edu/>

Implementation of WySR

- February 2012 - Digital Commons Implementation Task Force formed
- April - Repository Collection Development Report from bepress
- May - Sent out letters to 5 UW Departments for Scholarship Collections of Faculty Publications to include:
 - Botany
 - Economics and Finance
 - Geology and Geophysics
 - Mathematics
 - Zoology and Physiology
- June - Library Faculty Kickstart Workshop
- August - WySR went live
- October - WySR Workgroup
- November - February 2013
 - About page
 - File structure
 - Potential projects list

University of Wyoming Scholars Repository

University Libraries

WySR Digital Scholarship Services Provided by UW Libraries

- Faculty Bio Page - SelectedWorks Author Gallery
- Electronic Publications
 - professional-grade journals online
 - promote, review, and publish student scholarship
 - publish books, chapters, and monographs to the web
- Education & Consultation Services
 - Copyright Law, FairUse, and Teach Act
 - Author's Rights
- Develop Collegial Partnerships
- Showcasing and building local content through scholarship and areas of distinction
 - Wool Laboratory Collection
 - Manifold Greatness Lecture Series
 - STEM Curriculum Materials
http://repository.uwyo.edu/starrs_curriculum/
 - Wyoming Agricultural Experiment Station Bulletins
http://repository.uwyo.edu/ag_exp_sta_bulletins/

Kelly Visnak, Scholarly Communication Librarian, kvisnak@uwyo.edu or 766-5535 page 2