

University of Wyoming Libraries Linked Patrons Permission Form

- Any library borrower may designate another individual to act as a proxy for his or her library account using the Linked Patron service.
- This service authorizes two borrowers to check out and renew items on behalf of each other. Only two borrowers may link accounts at one time.
- To set up the linked patron service, both borrowers must have registered University of Wyoming Library accounts and must complete and sign this form.
- Permission will expire after one year if no date is indicated below.
