

University of Wyoming

Latina/o Studies Program Presents:

Latina/o Film Series

Spring 2015

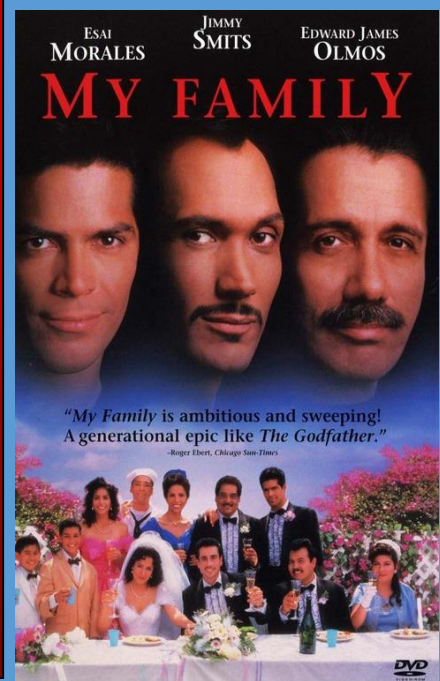

Precious Knowledge

Precious Knowledge is a 2011 political documentary centered on the banning of the Mexican American Studies Program in the Tucson Unified School District of Arizona. The film follows the lives of four students and several teachers in the Mexican American Studies program at Tucson High School.

My Family, depicts three generations of a Mexican-American family who immigrated from Mexico and settled in Angeles. The story is narrated by the family's oldest son, Paco (Edward James Olmos). "When I was born here, this was Mexico, and where I die, this is still Mexico."

Mi Familia

Even the rain

Even the Rain is a 2010 Spanish drama film directed by Icíar Bollain about Mexican director Sebastián (Gael García Bernal) and executive producer Costa (Luis Tosar) who travel to Bolivia to shoot a film depicting Christopher Columbus's conquest. Sebastián and Costa unexpectedly land themselves in a moral crisis when they and their crew arrive at Cochabamba, Bolivia, during the intensifying 2000 Cochabamba protests, which their key native actor Daniel (Juan Carlos Aduviri) persistently leads.