

NEED LANGUAGE CREDITS?

Some majors require foreign language credit hours. You might want to double major, add a minor, or take it to fulfill a personal interest. Students can earn up to 12 credit hours by taking a Credit By Exam (CBE).

UW has two ways for students to test out of foreign language credit:

1

FLATS Credit By Exam (CBE) (taken on campus)

Proctored by the Department of Modern & Classical Languages, Administered Online: FLATS-BYU-Foreign Language Achievement Testing Service from Brigham Young University.

A CBE allows students to test out of foreign language credits up to 12 hours. These credits will appear on transcripts as completed course requirements. The exam also places students in their correct language level. Depending on your major, between 8 to 18 hours of a foreign language may be required; please check with your advisor to confirm your major's requirement.
