EDUCATION

- 2010 Doctor of Philosophy, Educational Theory and Policy (Ph.D.)
The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania
Dual Title: Comparative and International Education
- 1999 Master of International & Intercultural Management (M.I.I.M.)
School for International Training, Brattleboro, Vermont
Concentration: International Education & Training
- 1989 Bachelor of Arts, Psychology (B.A.)
Berea College, Berea, Kentucky
Major Subjects: Human Learning & Behavior, Interpersonal Conflict Resolution

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- 2016-Present Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan
Executive Director of Education Abroad and Exchanges
- Responsible for providing leadership, innovation and advocacy in developing strategies for strengthening education abroad and international student programing that enhances and aligns international education with the university's educational mission and international objectives. Lead a team of over 30 full-time professional international educators across four distinct units that collectively provide national leadership in areas of freshmen programming, curriculum integration, faculty engagement, and international student recruitment for non-degree programming.*
- Oversee an annual operating budget of over $3.5 million, with annual transactions in excess of $15 million.
 - Provide vision and strategic direction for the design, development and facilitation of education abroad programming for the nearly 3,000 MSU students that earn credit abroad each year through study abroad, international internships, global service-learning, undergraduate research, etc.
 - Collaborate with university and academic unit leaders, international partners, and other stakeholders to design, develop, recruit, and facilitate educational programming for nearly 500 inbound, fee paying international students (F and J visa types) via the American Semester Program (ASP) and ASP Short Courses.
 - Promote the university's international education efforts and offerings, representing ISP across campus and throughout the world by networking with professional organizations and associations.
- 2010-2016 University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky
Executive Director, UK Education Abroad and Exchanges (2013-2016)
Director, Education Abroad (2010-2013)
- Under my leadership, education abroad participation has grown from fewer than 600 students to nearly 1,300 students in 2015-2016. While I began my position with a projected budget loss, the unit became completely self-supporting with a fund balance of over $500,000; annual transactions have grown from less than $1 million to over $5 million.*

- Supervised a team of 11 full-time staff and 29 student workers and ambassadors, creating a strategic approach to advising, marketing, and curricular integration.
- Served as a member of the UK International Center Leadership Team and UK International Advisory Council, both of which guide central internationalization strategy across the institution.
- Collaborated with senior leadership at the college and institutional level to leverage their priorities into international programming.
- Co-founded the Kentucky Council on Education Abroad (KCEA) as a state-wide association of colleges and universities to work in partnership for the advancement of education abroad programming across the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
- Created data architecture for tracking and assessment of Education Abroad, its relationship to retention, participation by underrepresented groups including Pell Grant-eligible students, and comprehensive safety/security tracking.

2007-2010

CET Academic Programs, Washington, DC & Osaka, Japan

Consultant, Japan Program Development

Founding Academic Director, CET Japan at Osaka Gakuin University

As the founding director of the CET program at Osaka Gakuin University (while completing my doctoral studies), I led the establishment of an innovative and rigorous Japanese language and culture education abroad program, today widely regarded as the premier program for US students in the region. The program continues to operate under the frameworks established during my tenure there, based on my knowledge of both US and Japanese higher education.

- Negotiated the Memorandum of Agreement between CET Academic Programs and Osaka Gakuin University, and continued to serve as liaison between the two entities.
- Established an on-going orientation and training program for Japanese language teachers to bridge the gap between Japanese and US-style pedagogies.
- Implemented a broad array of high-impact intercultural learning experiences both within and beyond the classroom setting.
- Initiated an innovative “Seikatsu Share” program, a first of its kind housing program in Japan in which US students live in shared apartments with Japanese students.
- Set up a comprehensive academic and student-affairs structure involving 30 students and 8 Japanese language instructors.
- Conducted a two-year, quasi-experimental study on student learning and outcomes, targeting both US students in Japan and their Japanese peers.

2003-2007

The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania

Associate Director, Education Abroad

This role involved oversight in the administration of all international programming across Penn State’s 24 campuses. Under my leadership, participation grew from 1,351 to 2,101 students, and by 2007 for the first time the university was listed among the top 10 institutions nationally.

- Led a team of 8 full-time staff and 20 student workers and volunteers.
- Designed and implemented a multi-campus system to support and manage all faculty-directed education abroad programming.
- Developed and launched two unique and well-funded education abroad scholarships – Whole World Scholarship (Initially funded at $25,000) to support study in non-traditional regions of the world; and Pennsylvania Commonwealth Education Abroad Scholarship (Initially funded at $50,000) to support short-term, faculty-led programming.

- Strengthened protocols in curricular integration, student advising and orientation, and safety/security management. Established Penn State's education abroad resource center and promotion and outreach strategies.
- Facilitated training for all Penn State faculty and staff in intercultural communication and management.

1998-2003 Institute for the International Education of Students (IES), Tokyo, Japan
Center Director

Under my leadership, the program was relocated, a new university partnership forged and the overall program re-conceptualized. Enrollment grew from seven students my first semester to over 100 students during my final semester, making IES the largest education abroad program for US students in Japan at the time.

- Negotiated an innovative Protocol Agreement between IES and Kanda University of International Studies (KUIS) and re-established the IES Center in Makuhari New City.
- Developed the IES field placement program that enabled all students to have an ethnographic research placement in a Japanese social organization during their time in Japan. Developed and taught an associated anthropology course.
- Designed and implemented a multiphase On-Going Orientation/Training Program as an essential component of the IES Tokyo Center's holistic approach to study abroad.

1997-1998 JA Study Abroad Center (JASA), Tokyo, Japan
Director for External Relations

As a practicum requirement of my master's program, I leveraged this unique employment opportunity to enhance JASA's approach to advising and recruitment of Japanese students seeking international degrees, while completing my thesis research on study abroad recruitment agencies.

- Established an overseas branch of a Japanese outbound educational exchange organization at Keele University, United Kingdom.

1995-1996 Advanced Systems in Measurement and Evaluation, Louisville, Kentucky
K.I.R.I.S. Performance Events Manager

As a contract employee, I was responsible for implementing Kentucky's innovative approach to performance-based testing in K-12 schools.

- Led a team of 20 employees in 43 eastern Kentucky counties.
- Developed protocols for tracking and interpreting assessment data.

1994-1995 Jomatt College of Technology, Batibo, Cameroon
Program Development/English & Literature Instructor

As a private volunteer in Cameroon, I raised funds to develop and launch an innovative Student Labor Program that continues to enable students to earn their own scholarships, while developing knowledge and skills to serve them throughout their careers.

- Secured funding from the embassies of England, Germany, and Canada for project development.
- Modeled on Berea College's Great Commitments, established a program in which students would work 10-15 hours on campus each week, producing items that would be sold at profit in the community. Students earned a modest wage and received free tuition and housing.
- Co-founded a local chapter of UNESCO in Batibo as well as a Solidarity Club, a regional group in Cameroon uniting for solidarity through dance, sport, and community development.

- 1993-1994 Vietnam Union of Peace, Solidarity, and Friendship Organization, Hanoi, Vietnam
 International Understanding Consultant/English Instructor
I was invited to assist this Hanoi-based NPO with developing and testing an innovative curriculum for international understanding and English language instruction.
- Developed curriculum and facilitated ESL instruction in the region's K-8 schools.
- 1990-1993 Council of Local Authorities for International Relations & Ministry of Education
Japan Exchange and Teaching Program, Kumamoto, Japan
 Coordinator for International Relations / ESL Instructor
As the first JET program participant in Uemura village and Tensui town, I developed the foundation for international and intercultural programming in these two school districts.
- Developed curriculum and facilitated ESL instruction in four Japanese K-8 schools.
 - Launched a series of programs for Japanese students to study abroad.
