

Paper Three:

Option A:

Develop any of the midterm essay questions into a full-length, formal essay.

Option B:

Develop either of the two questions from Paper Two that you did not address at the time.

Option C: The JASNA Essay Contest

The 2016 topic has been announced as follows:

Education is a running theme in Emma. For instance, there are teacher/pupil relationships, a school, and former and aspiring governesses. Discuss how this emphasis shapes the plot, develops characters or reflects the views of the period.

The contest calls for an eight-page paper, but this paper is shorter.

Three to five pages, typed, double-spaced, plus works cited, if relevant. Due Friday, November 20th.

We will discuss the final research paper in class. It could be an expanded version of the Essay Contest topic, or it could be something entirely different of your own choosing. A one-page prospectus for your final research paper will be due 23 Nov., and the term paper itself is due 7 Dec.
