

UNIVERSITY
OF WYOMING

College of Health Sciences
Fay W. Whitney
School of Nursing

The World Needs More Outside Thinkers.

Position #210117:

Assistant Lecturer – Nursing – Fiscal Year (12 month)

The Fay W. Whitney School of Nursing (FWWSON) at the University of Wyoming seeks to fill a position as Assistant Lecturer, teaching face-to-face didactic, clinical, laboratory, and on-line courses in the undergraduate programs..

The University of Wyoming offers a world-class education in the small community of Laramie, Wyoming. Find endless, four-season outdoor adventure, arts and culture, a lively downtown and a welcoming campus community. The Fay W. Whitney School of Nursing has an atmosphere that is friendly, scholarly, professional and forward-minded. Join an exciting, dynamic community, where active learning and teacher-student partnerships, scholarly practice, interprofessional education and practice, and rural health care are valued.

The School of Nursing is accredited through CCNE and offers undergraduate and graduate programs. For more information on the FWWSN, visit www.uwyo.edu/nursing.html. For more information about the region, go to visitolaramie.org.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

This Assistant Lecturer position is a fiscal year, twelve-month position. The Assistant Lecturer will be responsible for teaching in the undergraduate program in the Fay W. Whitney School of Nursing. Specific responsibilities include, but are not limited to, teaching in face-to-face didactic, laboratory, clinical, and on-line courses. Additional responsibilities include career advising to students; service to school, college, and profession; and professional development .

Minimum qualifications

- Graduate degree in nursing from an accredited institution
- Eligible for unencumbered RN licensure in Wyoming
- Commitment to working in a culturally diverse environment and the ability to effectively work with students, employees, vendors and community members from diverse backgrounds.
- Valid driver's license with a motor vehical record (MVR) that is compliant with the University Vehicle Use Policy.

Desired qualifications

- Two or more years of acute care clinical experience
- Two or more years of didactic teaching experience in nursing
- Two or more years of clinical teaching experience in nursing
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Experience working with students from diverse backgrounds in academic and clinical settings
- Experience in rural healthcare education and practice

Application Procedure

- Complete online application at https://eeik.fa.us2.oraclecloud.com/hcmUI/CandidateExperience/en/sites/CX_1/job/210117/?utm_medium=jobshare
- Upload one document which includes cover letter, resume or curriculum vitae, and contact information for four (4) work-related references
- To receive full consideration, please submit all application materials no later than June 23, 2021
- For questions regarding this position, contact David Bodily (Chair, Search Committee) at david.bodily@uwyo.edu

Required Materials

Online application / Resume or Curriculum Vitae / Cover letter / Contact information for four work-related references
UW is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Educator and Employer. UW invites diverse applicants to consider our employment opportunities. We are also especially interested in candidates who have experience working with diverse populations and/or diverse initiatives. We are committed to a multicultural environment and strongly encourage applications from women, minorities, veterans and persons with disabilities. In compliance with ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA), if you have a disability and would like to request accommodation to apply for a position, please call 307-766-2377 or email jobapps@uwyo.edu. We conduct background investigations for all final candidates considered for employment. Offers of employment contingent upon completion of background check.

