The Fay W. Whitney School of Nursing (FWWSON) at the University of Wyoming seeks to fill a position in which the lecturer will teach face-to-face didactic, clinical, and on-line courses.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

The Assistant Lecturer will be responsible for teaching in the undergraduate program in the Fay W. Whitney School of Nursing. Specific responsibilities include, but are not limited to, teaching in face-to-face didactic, clinical, and on-line courses. Additional responsibilities include career advising to students; service to school, college and profession; and professional development.

Minimum qualifications

- Graduate degree in nursing from accredited institution
- Eligible for unencumbered RN licensure in Wyoming
- Commitment to working in a culturally diverse environment and the ability to effectively work with students, employees, vendors and community members from diverse backgrounds.

Desired qualifications

- Two or more years of acute care clinical experience
- Two or more years of teaching experience in nursing
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Experience working with students from diverse backgrounds in academic and clinical settings
- Experience in rural healthcare education and practice

University of Wyoming | Laramie | Fay W. Whitney School of Nursing

The University of Wyoming is located in Laramie, a town of 30,000 in the heart of the Rocky Mountain West. The state of Wyoming continues to invest in its university, helping to make it a leader in academics, research and outreach. The university has state-of-the-art facilities in many areas and the community provides the advantages of a major university.

Located in a high mountain valley near the Colorado border, Laramie offers both outstanding recreational opportunities and close proximity to Colorado’s Front Range, a bustling group of metropolitan cities including Denver, Boulder, and Fort Collins. This beautiful mountain landscape offers outdoor enjoyment in all seasons, with over 300 days of sunshine annually. For more information about the region, please visit http://visitlaramie.org/.

The School of Nursing is accredited through CCNE and offers undergraduate and graduate programs. For more information on the FWWSON, please visit our website at www.uwyo.edu/nursing.

The position is open until filled. To ensure full consideration for this position, submit all application materials no later than February 1, 2020 through proper channels, i.e., through the UW Human Resources web site as follows:

- Access the online application at: https://uwyo.taleo.net/careersection/00_ex/jobdetail.ftl?job=19004906&lang=en
- At the above site, upload one document, which should include cover letter, resume or curriculum vitae, and contact information for four work-related references
- Application reviews will start 30 days following position posting and will be ongoing until the position is filled
- For questions regarding this position, contact: Paula Belknap (Chair, Search Committee) at pbelknap@uwyo.edu

The University of Wyoming invites diverse applicants to consider our employment opportunities. We are also especially interested in candidates who have experience working with diverse populations and/or diverse initiatives. UW is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Educator and Employer. We are committed to a multicultural environment and strongly encourage applications from women, minorities, veterans and persons with disabilities. In compliance with ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA), if you have a disability and would like to request accommodation to apply for a position, please call 307-766-2377 or email jobjpps@uwyo.edu. Offers of employment are contingent upon the completion of the background check.