

PHIL 3250-01: Global Justice

Instructor: Ed Sherline

Time: MWF 1:20-2:20

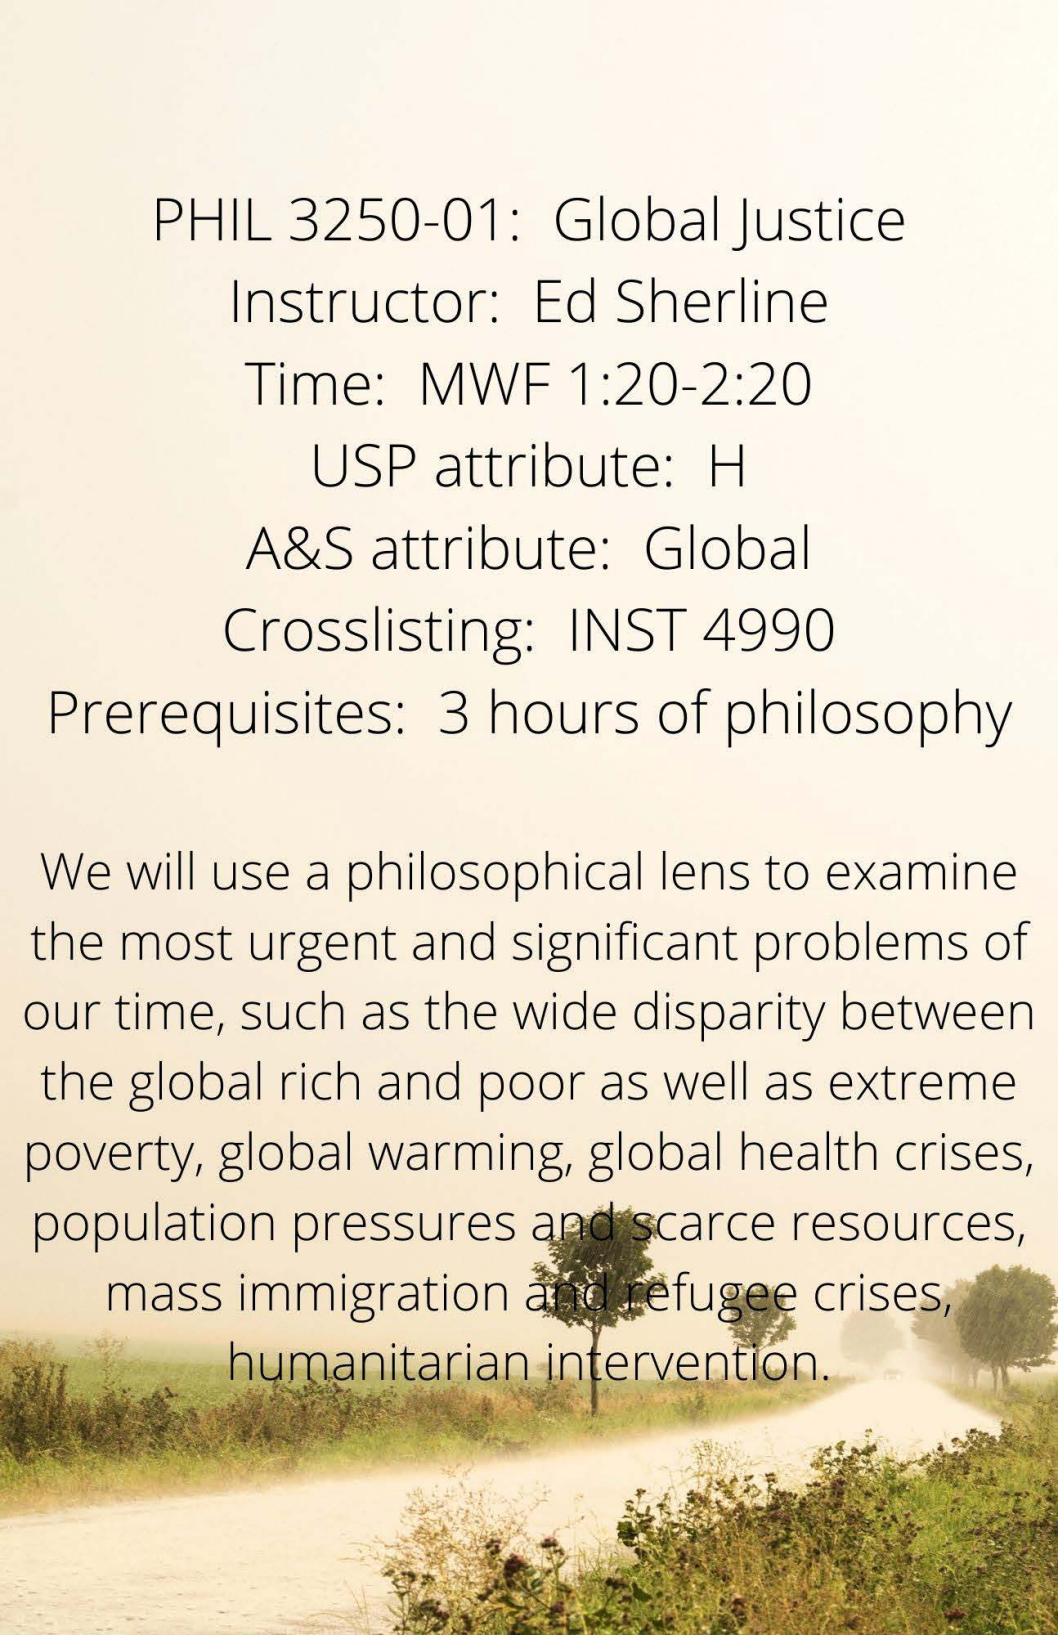

USP attribute: H

A&S attribute: Global

Crosslisting: INST 4990

Prerequisites: 3 hours of philosophy

We will use a philosophical lens to examine the most urgent and significant problems of our time, such as the wide disparity between the global rich and poor as well as extreme poverty, global warming, global health crises, population pressures and scarce resources, mass immigration and refugee crises, humanitarian intervention.

A misty, winding dirt road through a rural landscape with trees and bushes. The road curves from the bottom left towards the center right, disappearing into the distance. The scene is hazy with a soft, golden light, suggesting early morning or late afternoon. There are several trees and bushes along the road, and a small white car is visible in the distance on the road.