

You know science. But did you know science in its youth?

We used to believe this:

Geocentrism (until 1543)

and this:

Mantichora (1607)

We even did that:

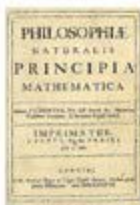

Trephining (14th century)

But we slowly got smarter,

Oresme's Velocity Graphs (14th Century)

until science reached its teenage years:

1687
