

Online Fall 2021 RELI/AAST 2450 COM 2 Dr. Mary L Keller

African Traditional Religions

What: The symbolic maps of African Indigenous Religions

*our relationship with time and our ancestors, *our relationship to the ecological fabric, *age and gender hierarchies, *ceremonial responsibilities.

When: Pre-history, colonialism, and contemporary gender studies.

How: Philosophy, literature, ethnography. Mostly asynchronous with mid-semester online synchronous presentations with your classmates on the novel. |

Why: It's the class that students say they never forget because time and place look differently after entering a different symbolic map of the world.