

UW REGULATION 1-1

Organization of the University

I. OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY

A. Designation

Officers of the University are: The President; Administrative Officers, to include the principal administrative officers of the University and the heads of their administrative subunits as set forth in section II of this regulation; and Academic Officers, to include Deans, Directors, Associate and Assistant Deans and Department and Division Heads, of the organized education units specified in section III of this regulation. Athletic coaches shall not be considered officers of the University but shall be contractual employees.

B. Appointment

The President of the University shall be appointed by the Trustees as provided in the Bylaws of the Trustees of the University of Wyoming. Nine affirmative votes of the Trustees shall be required for appointment. All other officers shall be appointed by the Trustees upon the recommendation of the President following consultation with the appropriate University officers and faculty. All appointments under this paragraph shall be on such terms with respect to salary, terms of employment and like matters as the Trustees may determine.

C. Removal

Any person appointed to an office or position pursuant to this section may be removed by the Trustees whenever in their judgment the best interests of the University will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Likewise such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights, if any, of such person as a tenured member of the faculty.

II. THE ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION OF THE UNIVERSITY

A. President of the University

Subject to control of the Trustees, the President of the University is the chief executive officer of the University and is vested with powers and duties as provided by laws of this State and the Bylaws of the Trustees of the University of Wyoming. In addition to such duties, the President shall enforce UW Regulations as adopted hereof, and the President is hereby clothed with all authority requisite to these ends. Any authority or responsibility of the President may be delegated by him/her to any other member of academic personnel (faculty or academic professional) or staff of the University, but delegation of major areas of authority or responsibility shall have the prior consent of the Trustees.

In the event of the resignation, death or incapacity of the President, the Trustees may appoint an acting president who shall perform the duties and have the powers of the President during such time as the Trustees may direct. If no acting President has been appointed by the Trustees, the duties of the President shall be performed by the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

The President shall serve as the ordinary channel of communication between the Trustees and academic personnel and between the Trustees and all subordinate administrative officers and staff of the internal organization. This regulation shall not be interpreted to limit the right of communication between academic personnel or other officers of the University and the Trustees or to limit the manner in which the Trustees may gain information as to the work and operation of the University.

The President shall have as principal administrative officers a Vice President for Academic Affairs, a Vice President for Student Affairs, a Vice President for Administration, a Vice President for Research and Economic Development, a Vice President for Institutional Advancement, a Vice President for Information Technology, a Vice President and General Counsel, a Vice President for Governmental and Community Affairs, a Director of Governmental Relations and a Special Assistant to the President for Diversity. The Special Assistant to the President for Diversity shall, at the direction of the President and in collaboration with the other principal administrative officers of the University, lead the development and implementation of the University diversity plan. He also may have other assistants as are authorized from time to time and may also authorize the appointment of Associate Vice Presidents for each of the principal administrative officers, who shall perform such duties as specified.

B. Vice President for Academic Affairs

The Vice President for Academic Affairs shall be responsible to the President for general administrative and coordination functions over the various instructional programs, on or off-campus, offered by the University. As the principal administrative officer for academic affairs, the Vice President shall maintain administrative supervision of the academic colleges, the University Studies Program, Graduate School, the Outreach School, including the University of Wyoming at Casper and the Office of International Programs, the Divisions of Military Science (Army ROTC) and Aerospace Studies (Air Force ROTC), University Libraries, Honors Program/Summer High School Institute, Wyoming Geographic Information Science Center (WyGIS), the Ellbogen Center for Teaching and Learning, the Haub School of Environment and Natural Resources, the American Heritage Center, and the Art Museum.

The Vice President shall initiate, organize, or direct such actions as are necessary and appropriate to assure that academic program needs and standards are established and implemented by appropriate units and officers of the University. The Vice President shall consult with and advise the President with respect to the recommendations of the officers of the various academic units concerning organization, development of programs, academic personnel appointments, promotions, leaves of absence, and salaries, and shall conduct such special studies relating to curriculum, instruction, academic personnel and other matters as may be determined by the President.

Additional administrative units may be assigned to the Vice President by the President and the Vice President may be assisted by one or more Associate Vice Presidents and such other assistants as are authorized from time to time.

C. Vice President for Administration

The Vice President for Administration is the principal financial officer of the University and shall be responsible to the President for the administration of all the business and financial affairs and the physical plant of the University, including institutional planning, preparation and administration of the University budget and development of long-term financing strategies to support implementation of the Capital Facilities Plan. The Vice President serves as the principal advisor to the President on the status of the University budget, and shall perform such duties as are required by statute or by UW Regulations.

The Vice President for Administration shall execute such agreements, leases, and other instruments relating to the transfer of real property, as may be appropriate to the management, control, acquisition, or disposition of property of the University in accordance with UW Regulations or other directions of the Trustees. The Vice President for Administration shall have administrative supervision over the following units: Fiscal Administration, which includes Financial Services, Accounting, Procurement Services, and Budget and Institutional Analysis; Administrative Operations, which includes Auxiliary Services, Campus Police, Physical Plant, Central Scheduling, and Real Estate Operations; Human Resources; Facilities Planning; and such other units and personnel as may be designated by the President.

In accordance with the Bylaws, the Vice President for Administration shall serve as the Deputy Treasurer of the Trustees of the University of Wyoming, and shall exercise all duties and responsibilities incident to this position, including the receipt, custody and recording of all monies or funds payable to the Trustees, the Treasurer, the University, or any of its colleges, divisions, or departments and the disbursement or investment of such funds and monies as authorized by the Trustees. Such disbursements shall be on vouchers authorized and approved by the Vice President for Administration or designee.

D. Vice President and General Counsel

The Vice President and General Counsel provides legal advice to the University, supervises the General Counsel's Office, and coordinates communications with the state's Attorney General. The Vice President and General Counsel is responsible for administration of UW Regulations and procedures related to risk management, environmental health and safety, and discrimination and employment practices and has administrative responsibility for the Diversity and Employment Practices Office and the Risk Management and Safety Office.

E. Vice President for Information Technology

The Vice President for Information Technology shall be responsible to the President for the general information technology functions of the University. As the chief information officer of the University, the Vice President shall oversee and manage the elements of Information Technology, including administrative and academic computing, networking, telecommunications, computing laboratories and customer support services.

The Vice President shall advise the President and the University community on issues involving Information Technology and data privacy; develop and manage computing standards, network architecture and security; determine information integration methodologies; and work with internal and external constituents to support diverse technology needs and build consensus on information technology issues. The Vice President shall be an advocate for the development and use of technology in instruction, academic support, research, social media, and institutional support.

The Vice President shall evaluate and analyze beneficial emerging and advanced technologies and provide a stable, reliable technology infrastructure for the University.

F. Vice President for Institutional Advancement

The Vice President for Institutional Advancement shall be responsible to the President for private fundraising and University relations with alumni and friends, and shall maintain administrative supervision of the Office of Institutional Advancement. The Vice President's primary functions shall include seeking private financial support for the University, coordinating private development and fundraising activities, and communicating with the University of Wyoming Foundation.

The Vice President shall initiate, organize, or direct such actions as are necessary and appropriate to ensure that development and alumni/friends relations are properly implemented and coordinated, and shall consult with and advise the President on all development and alumni/friends relations.

G. Vice President for Research and Economic Development

The Vice President for Research and Economic Development shall be responsible to the President for the general administrative supervision and coordination of research programs conducted by units of the University. The Vice President shall be responsible for reviewing and evaluating proposed research and economic development programs; continuing review of existing contracts and grants; and maintaining research compliance, including oversight of the Institutional Review Board (IRB), the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC), conflict of interest in research, and export control. The Vice President shall also be responsible for responding to allegations of research misconduct and shall serve as the Research Integrity Officer for the University.

The Vice President shall be responsible for maintaining an assessment of the available research capabilities of the University and shall interact with governmental agencies or other entities sponsoring or seeking research or investigatory studies.

The Vice President shall have administrative supervision over the following research units: Research Services, Sponsored Programs, the Advanced Research Computing Center (ARCC), the Wyoming IDeA Networks for Biomedical Excellence (INBRE) Program, the University of Wyoming-National Park Service Research Center, the Neuroscience Center, the Water Research Program/Office of Water Programs, Wyoming EPSCoR/IDeA, the Wyoming Natural Diversity Database (WYNDD), the Wyoming Research Products Center, the Humanities Institute, and any such other units as may be designated by the President.

The Vice President shall have administrative supervision over the following economic development units: the Wyoming Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC), Manufacturing Works, the Market Research center, the Wyoming SBIR/STTR Initiative (WSSI), the Wyoming Small Business Development Center (SBDC), the Wyoming Technology Business Center (WTBC), and any such other units as may be designated by the President.

H. Vice President for Student Affairs

The Vice President for Student Affairs shall be responsible to the President for the general administrative leadership and coordination of programs and services designed to support the learning and development of UW students.

In partnership with UW faculty, staff and students, the Vice President for Student Affairs shall orchestrate the enrollment management programs of the University to recruit and retain a student body of the size and diversity appropriate to the needs of the state, the demands of the workforce, and the resources of the institution. The Vice President shall develop and deliver services, programs and facilities that promote the intellectual, personal, cultural and civic development of students; coordinate efforts to create a caring community in which individuals are respected, encouraged to pursue excellence, and assisted in achieving their potential; and foster the celebration of diversity of individuals and cultures.

The Vice President for Student Affairs shall have administrative supervision over the following units: Admissions Office, including International Students and Scholars; Alumni Relations; the Associated Students of the University of Wyoming (ASUW); Cowboy Parents; the Center for Advising and Career Services; Campus Recreation; Dean of Students, which includes Multicultural Affairs; Office of the Registrar; Residence Life and Dining Services; Student Educational Opportunity, which includes the University Disability Support Services; Student Financial Aid; Student Health Service; University Counseling Center, which includes the AWARE program; Wyoming Union; and any other such units or responsibilities as may be designated by the President. Each unit shall be headed by a director who shall be responsible for all matters relating to the administrative affairs of that unit.

I. Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

The Director of Intercollegiate Athletics shall be responsible to the President for the planning, direction and management of the Athletics Division.

Athletic coaches shall not be considered officers of the University but shall be contractual employees. The President shall have the authority to appoint any athletic coach with a one-year contract and shall consult with the Executive Committee of the Trustees prior to appointing any coach with a multi-year contract.

J. Vice President for Governmental and Community Affairs

The Vice President for Governmental and Community Affairs is responsible to the President for establishing and implementing the University's plans for relations with federal, state, and local government officials. The Vice President represents the University in its communications with elected officials at all levels, including all federal and state legislation. The Vice President provides advice, assistance, and information to the Trustees, the President, and other University units with respect to government relations.

The Vice President has administrative responsibility for the Institutional Communication and Institutional Marketing Departments.

III. THE ACADEMIC ORGANIZATION OF THE UNIVERSITY

A. Academic Personnel

The faculty consists of (a) all persons having professional ranks (professor, associate professor, assistant professor, or instructor), (b) librarians of all ranks, and (c) archivists of all ranks. Persons having professorial ranks are either non-tenure track or tenure track. Non-tenure track faculty include clinical, visiting, and adjunct professors of all ranks. Tenure-track faculty include probationary and tenured faculty members. Persons having librarian or archivist ranks are either non-extended-term track (previously referred to as “temporary”) or extended-term track. Extended-term track librarians and archivists include individuals holding probationary or extended-term appointments.

Academic professionals include (a) lecturers of all ranks, except as noted below; (b) research scientists of all ranks; (c) extension educators of all ranks; and (d) postdoctoral associates. All postdoctoral associates are non-extended-term track employees. Academic professionals in the other categories may be non-extended-term track or extended-term track. The latter category includes academic professionals holding probationary or extended-term appointments.

Non-tenure track, visiting, and adjunct faculty members and non-extended-term track academic professionals are non-voting academic personnel. Specific University regulations govern the voting rights of other academic personnel in such matters as reappointment, tenure, promotion, extended terms, representation in the Faculty Senate and its standing committees, and college- and university-level committees. Emeritus status reflects the Trustees’ recognition for long and distinguished service by a retired faculty member or academic professional and carries no voting rights.

Current employees who have held the rank of lecturer since before the implementation of the academic professional category and who have not elected to convert to the academic professional category retain the title lecturer, along with the status formerly associated with that title. In particular, they retain faculty status, appointments subject to annual renewal, and any voting rights associated with the lecturer title before 1992.

The University Faculty, subject to approval by the President and the Trustees, shall formulate educational and academic policies for the University as a whole; shall promote the general welfare of the University, its students and the faculty; and shall establish bylaws for its organization pursuant to which it may adopt regulations in accordance with UW Regulation 1-101.

B. Colleges

The University shall have the following colleges: Agriculture and Natural Resources, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering and Applied Science, Health Sciences, and Law.

Each college and the Haub School of Environment and Natural Resources shall be headed by a dean who shall be responsible for all matters relating to the educational and administrative affairs of the college or school and who shall report to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The dean shall preside at meetings of the college or school faculty, recommend the college or school budget in consultation with the heads of subunits within the college or school, transmit and recommend appointments and promotions with respect to academic personnel and staff of the college or school and exercise general administrative supervision over the educational programs and operations of the college or school.

The faculty of the college or school shall consist of the President of the University and the Vice President for Academic Affairs (serving as ex officio without vote), the dean, and all members of the University faculty serving in the college or school.

The college or school faculty shall, subject to the authority of the President and the Trustees, have jurisdiction in all academic matters within the scope of the college or school, including the determination of curricula, the standards for admission to, continuation in, and graduation from the college school, except as authority is otherwise limited by maintenance of general University educational policy and correct academic and administrative relations with other units of the University. Questions of autonomy and jurisdiction between a college or school faculty and the University faculty or between two college faculties shall be adjudicated by the President of the University, subject to appeal to the Trustees.

The college faculty, through the dean of the college or school, shall recommend candidates for diplomas and degrees in course to the President and the Trustees. Subject to the approval of the Trustees, each college or school may be organized into schools, departments, divisions or faculties under the general directions of an academic officer.

C. Graduate Education

Graduate education at the University shall be the primary responsibility of the faculty, department head/chair and Deans of the academic colleges or the Haub School of Environment and Natural Resources and interdisciplinary programs under the oversight of the Vice President for Academic Affairs or designee. Policies pertaining to individual degrees and majors, graduate program admission and degree completion processes are outlined in the University Catalog. The Graduate Council, a standing committee of the Faculty Senate, shall be responsible for reviewing proposals for new academic programs and making recommendations to the Vice President for Academic Affairs, reviewing policies for graduate education, and providing an appellate body to review appeals of graduate students. The membership and charge of the Graduate Council is outlined in UW Regulation 6-702. The faculty shall recommend candidates for advanced degrees and diplomas to the President and the Trustees through the college or school dean or interdisciplinary program director.

D. The Outreach School

The Outreach School shall be headed by a Dean who shall report to the Vice President for Academic Affairs and shall be responsible for the recommendation of the Outreach School budget and for the administration of the programs and functions of the School.

E. University Libraries

University Libraries shall be headed by a Dean who shall be responsible for the provision of library services, and for the recommendation of the Library budget. The Dean shall report to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Librarians at the University shall be appointed by the Trustees. Recommendations for such appointment shall be initiated by the Dean, and shall be forwarded to the Vice President for Academic Affairs who shall add his/her recommendations to the President for recommendation to the Trustees. The designation "Librarian" shall be an academic title, signifying faculty status, and shall apply only to those qualified to provide professional library services in support of the University's instructional, research and public service functions, including the following:

1. Selection and development of library collections and other informational resources;
2. Bibliographical control of collections and their organization for use;
3. Reference, bibliographic instruction and advisory services;
4. Development and application of specialized information systems;
5. Library administration and management; and
6. Research where necessary or desirable in relation to the foregoing.

The Librarians shall be subject to a peer review, ranking, promotion and extended-term appointment system more specifically set forth in UW Regulations. Recruiting, appointments and salaries will be administered by the Dean, through the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The principles of academic freedom as defined in these Regulations shall apply to Librarians.

F. Divisions of Military Science and Aerospace Studies

The Divisions of Military Science and Aerospace Studies shall offer such programs in the Reserve Officer Training Corps as may be authorized by the Congress of the United States and the Department of Defense through the Secretaries of the Army and Air Force, respectively, and as approved by the Trustees. The Divisions shall be headed by a Professor of Military Science and a Professor of Aerospace Studies, respectively, who shall report to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The professors shall be nominated by the appropriate Armed Forces and appointed by the Trustees upon recommendation of the President of the University.

IV. HONORARY DEGREES

Nominees for honorary degrees may be submitted by members or former members of the Trustees, members of the faculty, and alumni. All recommendations shall be submitted in writing to the President of the University by a designated date each year. The President shall refer all nominations to a joint committee consisting of not more than four members of the Trustees appointed annually by the President of the Trustees, three members of the appropriate faculty committee chosen annually by that committee, and the President of the University who shall preside as chairperson without vote.
