

2026 Harlow Summer Seminar Series and Special Events

5:30 pm BBQ followed by seminar at 6:30, $10 suggested donation

Visit our website (uwnps.org) for more information on seminars and to join our mailing list.

Events are open to the public – reservations not required.

- June 25 A skeptical embrace: Using AI to understand changing rivers and lakes and improve decision making
Dr. Matt Ross, Associate Professor of watershed science in the Department of Ecosystem Science and Sustainability at Colorado State University
- July 2 Balancing the Visitor Economy in the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem: Data, Tradeoffs, and the Path Forward
Dr. Dan McCoy, Director of the Jay Kemmerer Wyoming Outdoor Recreation, Tourism, and Hospitality (WORTH) Institute at the University of Wyoming
- July 9 Whither wilderness? Collaborative archaeology and the place of people in Grand Teton ecology
Dr. Randy Haas, Associate Professor in the University of Wyoming Department of Anthropology with contributions from Claudia Celia, Colin King, Xavier Littlehead, Michael Thom, JP Schubert, and James Trospen

Wednesday Special Event*

- July 15 The Wyoming Festival–New Music in the Mountains
Includes a 5:30pm BBQ and 6:30pm concert
Directed by The Wyoming Festival Founder, Dr. Anne Guzzo, with musical direction from violinist, Holly Mulcahy
This special event will not be streamed. Please join us in person!

- July 23 Bears of the Tetons: Roaming a Landscape of Complexity
Justin Schwabedissen, Bear Biologist for Grand Teton National Park
- July 30 The Snake River Futures Report
Dr. Bryan Shuman, University of Wyoming Professor and Wyoming Excellence Chair in the Department of Geology and Geophysics
- Aug 6 Investigating the ecology of bats in the west
Dr. Riley Bernard, Assistant Professor in the University of Wyoming Department of Zoology & Physiology

Except where noted, events are on Thursdays. All events are held in person at the Berol Lodge at the AMK Ranch and most are streamed online at the time of the event. Join our mailing list to get updates and streaming links when available! (uwnps.org)*