A BILL TO CHANGE THE LARIAT STANDING COMMITTEE TO THE COMMUNICATION STANDING COMMITTEE
Sponsored By: James E. Kaltenbach, President

WHEREAS, the Staff Senate is the representative body for the staff at the University of Wyoming; and

WHEREAS, a major part of effective representation is communication; and

WHEREAS, there is a need to disseminate information throughout the staff community;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Communication Committee replace the Lariat Committee as a standing committee, with the following functions, powers and composition:

FUNCTION—(1) To constantly strive for better communication between Staff Senate and its constituents. This can be through the use of listserves, websites, mailings, and any other method the committee may decide. (2) To publish a newsletter, the Lariat, informing the staff of news and functions from Staff Senate and the University as a whole.

POWERS--To appoint and charge the Lariat subcommittee (that shall have at least two members from the Communication Committee), and also be empowered to appoint and charge any ad hoc subcommittees (each subcommittee will have at least two members from the Communication Committee) as the committee deems necessary.

COMPOSITION--The Lariat Committee shall have no more than eight voting members. These members are to be a mix of University staff (general and professional, Staff Senate and non-Staff Senate) with at least four of them being Senators.
