Staff Senate President, Tim Nichols
ADDENDUM A

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING REGULATIONS

Subject: Staff Senate
Number: UW Regulation 1-3

I. PURPOSE

To describe the roles and responsibilities of the University of Wyoming Staff Senate.

II. POLICY

The Staff Senate shall be the representative body of the University's staff employees and shall serve the following functions:

A. To advocate for the well-being and prosperity of the University of Wyoming Staff.

B. To be substantially involved in establishing UW Regulations and Standard Administrative Policies and Procedures that have an impact on Staff.

C. To achieve a spirit of unity, pride, and cooperation by being recognized equally with faculty and student bodies in advising University administration.

D. To provide a means of communication between staff and administration relative to issues of mutual concern.

E. To provide open meetings to express, propose, represent, investigate, debate, and recommend action to University administration.

F. To advise the administration of working and employment conditions and practices, including compensation, professional development, benefits, and grievances.

G. To involve staff senators in University administration and to increase awareness of staff problems and opportunities.

III. ADVISORY STATUS OF THE SENATE

The Senate shall be advisory to the President of the University of Wyoming Staff, President, and Board of Trustees.

IV. BYLAWS

The Staff Senate shall establish bylaws, policies, and procedures, as it deems appropriate, for the functioning of the Senate and the regulation of its program, services, and operations.

V. SENATE SUPPORT

A. The Senate shall have a budget as determined annually by University procedures including administrative assistant services, a salary for the Senate President, office space, and appropriate support services.

B. The Senate President shall be given a fifty percent (50%) release from his/her normal job responsibilities while holding that office. The Senate President shall be paid one hundred percent (100%) of his/her base normal salary from his/her home unit. The Senate President shall be given between twenty-five and fifty percent (25% - 50%) release from their normal job responsibilities while holding that office. In addition, release time funds of up to fifty percent (50%) of the Senate President's salary shall be provided made available to the home unit by the Vice President for Finance and Administration Division of Budget and Finance for use as deemed necessary by the home unit. The agreed-upon release time is to be applied at the Staff Senate President's discretion for the sole purpose of the completion of their Staff Senate Responsibilities. Additionally, a stipend may also be provided. This arrangement shall be outlined in an annual Memo Of Understanding between the Senate President, the home unit, and the Vice President for Budget and Finance in consultation with Human Resources no later than 10 business days after the election of the Staff Senate President. Any of these parties can call for a review of the MOU Memo of Understanding at any time. If an agreement has not been reached by the aforementioned parties, the default agreement will be 33.3% - 50% release from his/her normal job responsibilities and 33.3% - 50% release time funds to be made available to the home unit.

C. Senate members shall be released from normal work duties for a minimum of eight (8) hours each month for the purpose of participating in Senate activities. Senate officers shall be granted such additional release time as is necessary to attend to specified Senate affairs. In no way shall this release time be charged against an individual member.

D. Additional support may be provided by the Vice President for Finance and Administration Division of Budget and Finance upon justified requests from the Senate President in consultation with the University of Wyoming President and Vice President of Budget and Finance.
