Report Title: SUMMER 2025

Introduction: Student Legal Services (SLS) is a program through ASUW that provides free, confidential legal advice to all full-fee-paying University of Wyoming students. The FYS 2024-25-year personnel are WY licensed attorney Samantha Daniels and UW College of Law Intern Lisa Hoffman. We are to report to ASUW statistics on our program quarterly.

Further details provided below could threaten confidentiality and the attorney-client privilege.

DATA: Between 5/9/25 and 8/20/2025 Student Legal Services assisted 11 individuals.

Of these individuals, 3 students were not eligible for assistance.

Note: Ineligibility means that either a) the student is not a full-fee paying student, which includes on-campus services like SLS, b) the student was attempting suit against another student or the University or another University entity or c) the inquiry was not one that SLS covers in its limited scope of services.

Additionally, another 3 students did not complete the intake process.

A total of 4 referrals had to be made, which included 3 non-eligible clients and 1 eligible client.

Note: An incomplete intake process can mean anything from never filling out the intake form, to failing to agree to the limited scope agreement, to never providing meet times, or even missing or canceling an appointment.

The following statistics are based on the remaining 4 students we assisted. (see other attachment)

Goals:

1. Review eligibility rules with ASUW Student Government and Dean of Students.
2. Create an FAQ page on the website to address immigration/visa concerns for students.

Accomplishments:

1. Renewed contract for FYS 25-26.
2. Tabled at Saddle Up Resource Fair: engaged with 67 students.

Submitted by: Lisa Hoffman and Samantha Daniels

Comments: In FYS 24-25 (summer to summer) we engaged with a total of 117 students.
