What is Zero Waste?

“Zero Waste is a goal that is ethical, economical, efficient and visionary, to guide people in changing their lifestyles and practices to emulate sustainable natural cycles, where all discarded materials are designed to become resources for others to use”

--Zero Waste International Alliance

Zero Waste means designing products and processes to systematically avoid and eliminate waste, conserve and recover all resources, and not burn or bury them. The goal is to reach 90% diversion through actions such as resource reduction, reuse, recycling and composting.

Pre-Event Planning

In order to get your event started, answer these 7 easy questions and make initial contact with the appropriate people.

1. Where is your event located?
   UNION:
   - Contact: Union Events Staff
     unionres@uwyo.edu
     (307) 766-3161
   - Inform them that you are planning a Zero Waste event. Discuss questions 2 and 3.

   ANYWHERE ELSE:
   - Contact: Crystal Bennett
     cbennett@uwyo.edu
     (307) 766-6717
   - Inform her you are planning a Zero Waste event. Discuss with her question 2 and 3.

2. How large is your event?
   <250 PEOPLE:
   - You will likely need 2 recycling bins, 2 compost bins, and 1 landfill bin.
   >250 PEOPLE:
   - You will likely need 4 recycling bins and 4 compost bins.

3. Is your event multiple days?
   YES:
   - Coordinate where and when bin pick-up will be with facilities.
   NO:
   - Talk with contact from question 1 about where bins need to be placed at the end of event.

4. Will your event have food?
   YES:
   - Contact your caterer about making your event vegan*.
   - Use reusable dishware, silverware and linens (UW Catering offers these services).
   - Contact ACRES for composting options at: uwstudentfarm@gmail.com
   - Contact attendees asking them to BYOE (bring your own everything).
   NO:
   - Be prepared for outside food and dishware. It will probably all have to go in the landfill.

5. Will your event have swag items?
   YES:
   - Contact vendors ahead of time. Instruct them to:
     - promote your event online as possible
     - put free items on a table to be picked up at will instead of handed out
     - reduce what they bring
     - reduce packaging for what they bring
   NO:
   - Don’t worry about it.
   ANYWHERE ELSE:
   - Contact: Crystal Bennett
     cbennett@uwyo.edu
     (307) 766-6717
   - Inform her you are planning a Zero Waste event. Discuss with her question 2 and 3.

6. Want marketing materials?
   YES:
   - Contact Sustainability Club for hard and soft copies of pre-made signs and sign ideas.
   NO:
   - Don’t worry about it (but we recommend it).

7. Still have questions or need help?
   YES:
   - Contact the Sustainability Club for logistic and training advice at: uwyo.sustainability@gmail.com
   NO:
   - Don’t worry about it (but we’re always here if you need us).

*ACRES student farm only accepts non-animal products for their composting purposes for food safety reasons, therefore any meals you serve must be vegan.
During Event

Once you set up your bins, it is important to have at least one volunteer directing people to place their waste in the correct receptacles. Use this guide to help you determine what goes where.

Tips and Tricks

Challenges may arise during your event, use these tips and tricks to keep everything running smoothly.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Consider covering landfill containers with an easily removable cover, like a piece of cardboard. The slight obstacle causes people to stop and think about what they are throwing away. This is a great opportunity to display instructional signs too!</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Post signs around your event about the purpose of Zero Waste and signs directing people where to put their waste.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Do not get frustrated if things are not going as expected. This is a learning process for everybody, but you can overcome any complications.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Communication is important with attendees. Some people may be confused and even frustrated with Zero Waste procedures at first. Be patient and take the time to show them how to use the waste station. Be open towards them and thank them for their help.

Not sure if it’s recyclable?

Do not panic! Look for the recycling symbol on the item; if it is not present, it is most likely not recyclable.

Not sure if it’s compostable?

A good rule of thumb is if it cannot be grown, it cannot be composted.

After Event

Once your event is over, follow this chart to take the necessary steps to wrap up the Zero Waste part of your event.

Make sure to clean up any additional resources around your site and distribute them to the correct bins.

Tie off bags and make sure they are in the right location to be picked up by facilities.

If you borrowed signs, or if you made reusable signs, please leave them with the Sustainability Club so that they can be used for other events.

Call ACRES for compost pickup if you have food waste.

MOST IMPORTANT: Celebrate your success! Share pictures of your event through social media and contact the Sustainability Club and Campus Sustainability Committee about your awesome efforts.
