Cowboy Credit: Business Pathway
2026-2027 University of Wyoming & Lamar Community College

Cowboy Credit is a planning tool that helps students identify coursework that may align with a UW academic pathway before transferring to the University of Wyoming.

START YOUR PATH

Planning for a Business degree at UW?

Start with these commonly transferable courses to stay on track across UW's College of Business majors.

Business Foundations

Take these courses before you transfer:

- Financial Accounting
- Managerial Accounting
- Microeconomics
- Macroeconomics
- Principles of Management
- Introduction to Marketing
- Business Law
- Introduction to Information Systems
- Operations / Supply Chain
- Principles of Finance

These courses represent UW's College of Business Common Body of Knowledge and are shared across all business majors.

Quantitative Foundations

Build your math and data skills early:

- College Algebra (or higher; required preparation for math and statistics coursework)
- Math Applications for Business
- Business Calculus or Calculus I
- Statistics

These courses provide important preparation for upper-division coursework in business programs.

General Education

Additional courses to stay on track:

- English Composition
- Communication (Public Speaking recommended)
- Humanities / Social Sciences
- Natural Sciences

Every student's path is unique. You don't need to complete all of these courses before transferring—this guide helps you start building a strong foundation, and our team will work with you to make the most of your previous coursework, including AP, IB, CLEP, dual enrollment, and transfer credit.
