Trustee Mel Baldwin was not in attendance. Ex-officio Trustees participating: UW President Ed Seidel, ASUW President Riley Talamantes, State Superintendent of Public Instruction Jillian Balow, and Executive Director of Wyoming Community College Commission Sandy Caldwell were also in attendance. Governor Mark Gordon was not in attendance; Senior Policy Advisor Lachelle Brant attended on his behalf.
AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Appointment of Trustees, Marsh

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:

Trustee Jeff Marsh stated discussion of appointment of Trustees would be postponed to March meeting. Trustee Marsh expressed appreciation for Trustee Mel Baldwin’s service to the Board. Senior Policy Advisor Lachelle Brant stated Governor Mark Gordon would release Trustee appointments by March 1, 2021.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: COVID-19 Update, Seidel/Benham-Deal

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:

President Ed Seidel provided the Board an update on the university’s ongoing response to COVID-19. President Seidel discussed prevalence statistics nationally and on the university campus. President Seidel reported that UW has run a total of 125,055 tests since the start of UW’s Testing Program, and thanked the COVID Hub leaders Danika Salmans, Nycole Courtney, and Phil Wille for their monumental efforts since March 2020. President Seidel went on to discuss vaccine administration, reporting on the continued partnership with Albany County Public Health and Ivinson Memorial Hospital to administer vaccines to County residents. President Seidel reported on conversations with the Wyoming Department of Health to include university faculty and staff in vaccination Phase 1c3. President Seidel further stated students living in residence halls are included in Phase 1c4, and reported that Enrollment Management and Admissions are working on plans to offer clinics to prospective students when they arrive for orientation. President Seidel discussed the launch of a vigorous vaccine marketing and education campaign on March 8, 2021, and described UW’s Vaccine Team consisted of members across campus, including Faculty Senate, Staff Senate, and ASUW. President Seidel discussed the university’s assistance to the State of Wyoming by administering a vaccine call center, and helping direct residents to vaccine resources.

President Seidel discussed investigations toward providing more in-person experiences and fewer restrictions related to COVID-19 for the fall 2021 semester. President Seidel stated that this can only happen with widespread vaccine availability and acceptance along with downward trends in infection numbers. President Seidel discussed that 70 percent of members in the UW community will need to be vaccinated in order to achieve necessary levels of immunity for a more robust in person experience, and further stated that ideally UW faculty and staff members will have been vaccinated six weeks ahead of the scheduled August 23rd start of the fall semester. Trustee Macey Moore discussed the importance of an in person student experience, and the student and faculty role in making that happen. In response to inquiry from Trustee Moore, President Seidel stated it is unknown whether a 70% community uptake is possible, but stated that the scientific evidence proves it is necessary. President Seidel reiterated the importance of focusing on mental health and safety of the UW community. Trustee Dick Scarlett discussed the importance of telegraphing the information provided by President Seidel across the state.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: EOG Royalty Matter – President’s Recommendations, Seidel

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:

President Ed Seidel discussed plans to create an institutional fund managed by the UW Foundation further stating the intention of the fund would support excellence in young faculty. Trustee Dave True expressed that given the source of the funding, his desire would be that the focus of the endowment be in support of the energy industry.
AGENDA ITEM TITLE: UW Regulation 2-13 Program Review Update, Alexander

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Interim Provost Anne Alexander provided an update on the program review per UW Regulation 2-13 (Academic Program Reorganization, Consolidation, Reduction and Discontinuance). Alexander reported that to comply with the regulation a UW Regulation 2-13 Review Committee had been created and had hosted two listening sessions, and met with representatives of the programs under review. Alexander reported that two website portals were established to solicit constituent feedback. Alexander provided a summary of the “Final Report to Interim Provost Alexander from Round 1 UW 2-13 Program Review Committee” and said she supported the committee recommendations. Alexander provided updates on the next round of reviews stating that no position terminations will take place, and students enrolled in programs under review will not be impacted.

Trustee Dick Scarlett inquired about the potential decrease of enrollment based on the reduction in programs. Assistant Vice President of Undergraduate Education Steve Barret discussed the enrollments related to the programs in the portfolio review, stating there was minimal impact on enrollment related to the programs identified for elimination thus far. Assistant Vice President of Graduate Education James Ahern concurred, and discussed subject minors. President Ed Seidel stated the forthcoming portfolio review will result in change.
