University of Wyoming Mission Statement (July 2017)

We honor our heritage as the state’s flagship and land-grant university by providing accessible and affordable higher education of the highest quality; rigorous scholarship; the communication and application of knowledge; economic and community development; and responsible stewardship of our cultural, historical and natural resources.

In the exercise of our primary mission to promote learning, we seek to provide academic and co-curricular opportunities that will:

• Graduate students who have experienced the frontiers of scholarship and creative activity and who are prepared for the complexities of an interdependent world;
• Cultivate a community of learning energized by collaborative work among students, faculty, staff and external partners.
• Nurture an environment that values and manifests diversity, internationalization, free expression, academic freedom, personal integrity and mutual respect; and
• Promote opportunities for personal health and growth, physical health, athletic competition and leadership development for all members of the university community.

As Wyoming’s only public university, we are committed to scholarship, outreach and service that extend our human talent and technological capacity to serve the people in our communities, our state, the nation and the world.
As will be reflected in the public and executive session meeting minutes, the Board of Trustees of the University of Wyoming met via video conference, on Thursday, March 25, 2021. Committees met on Wednesday, March 24, 2021. The Board’s business meeting was held on Thursday, March 25, 2021.

Adjourn Meeting
AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Wyoming Planning Association “2020 Planning Project of the Year” awarded to the Pilot Hill Land Use Plan. Sarah Mathews/Marilyn Kite
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Justice Marilyn Kite and Pilot Hill, Inc. Executive Director Sarah Mathews introduced a video presentation from the Wyoming Planning Association’s “2020 Planning Project of the Year” awarded to the Pilot Hill Land Use Plan. Kite provided a summary update on the progress of the Pilot Hill trail system. Mathews stated the first phase includes approximately 27 miles of trails and reported on discussion of partnership opportunities with the Wyoming Conservation Corps. Kite went on to describe collaborations with the Haub School and other UW entities, and ended her report with recognition to Trustee Kermit Brown for his support of the Pilot Hill Project.

Trustee Kermit Brown spoke about the wildlife activity captured on trail cameras. Trustee Macey Moore expressed her enthusiasm about the project, and in response to Trustee Moore’s inquiry, Mathews stated it was projected that by July 1, 2021, two trail options will be available to visitors. Trustee David Fall and President Seidel also expressed enthusiasm about the project. Mathews expressed thanks to the University of Wyoming for its support.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: RSO Recognition - Keepers of the Fire, Ryan O’Neil, Wolf Star Duran, Eric Bennett
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Dean of Students and Associate Vice President for Student Affairs Ryan O’Neil introduced Registered Student Organization (RSO) Keepers of the Fire established in 1971. O’Neil reported members of Keepers of the Fire have a rich campus presence and recently joined other RSO’s in developing a land acknowledgement document recognizing use of Native American lands. By way of video presentation, members of Keepers of the Fire described the RSO’s activities and discussed the benefits of, and expressed gratitude for, the Native American Education, Research and Cultural Center. President Ed Seidel described the university’s commitment to strengthening relationships with the Native American community with increased opportunities for research, internships, and through ongoing efforts toward building an inclusive campus. In response to inquiry from Trustee Michelle Sullivan, RSO member Eric Bennett discussed the challenge of keeping students involved and positive during the COVID-19 pandemic. Eric Bennett and Wolf Star Duran also discussed how the RSO is engaged in outreach to Native American tribes in Wyoming and nationally, to provide information about the Native American Education, Research and Cultural Center, and the university’s Summer Institute. Trustee Brad LaCroix requested a copy of the presentation to share with K-12 school districts.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: COVID-19 Update, Seidel
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
President Ed Seidel provided the Board an update on the university’s response to COVID-19, sharing information about the number of active cases among the university community. President Seidel stated that Albany County is one of the counties in Wyoming with the lowest number of active COVID cases. President Seidel reported COVID-19 vaccines were available to all university employees as of March 8, 2021, and that UW’s Vaccination Working Group has been cooperating with Albany County and Ivinson Memorial Hospital to offer vaccination clinics, and working toward making student vaccine clinics available soon. President Seidel stated that in response to constituent support for an in-person graduation experience, the university has made plans to conduct its 2021 spring commencement with four hybrid virtual/in person graduations. President Seidel reported that of the 1,800 students graduating in the spring, to date 750 students have requested to participate in an in person component of their graduation ceremony. President Seidel extended congratulations to the various teams’ responsible for the planning and coordination necessary to provide this experience. President Seidel stated that in response to the Boards request at its March 10, 2021, “Special” meeting, UW has adjusted its initial plan to allow students and faculty the option of continuing in-person experiences after Spring Break. President Seidel concluded his report by saying that UW is preparing for a more in-person fall semester, with 79% of courses currently scheduled for face to face delivery in the fall 2021 semester.

Trustee David Fall expressed his support for a more in person student experience. In response to his inquiry about faculty and staff vaccination uptake, Vice President and General Counsel Tara Evans discussed the employee online access to voluntary vaccination reporting. Evans went on to discuss university marketing campaigns promoting vaccine uptake.

In response to inquiry from Trustee Carol Linton, President Seidel discussed the process of faculty opt-in with regard to in person course delivery. Interim Provost Anne Alexander went on to describe that there was an emphasis on smaller first year, senior level, and graduate level courses due to the ability to follow COVID-19 in person distancing requirements.

Trustee Macey Moore expressed her gratitude for the work to expand options for in person experiences. In response to inquiry from Trustee Moore, Dean of Students and Associate Vice President for Student Affairs Ryan O’Neil discussed the COVID-19 pass, and explained testing compliance for students.

Trustee Kermit Brown discussed the difficulty predicting future course delivery and residential preferences as the university discusses new UW Campus Housing. In response, President Seidel suggested the intimate college experience that UW offers may be forced to take on some different forms, further stating changes could include living/learning communities, enhancing online experiences to compliment the trend in higher education as faculty have embraced technologies for hybrid/online experiences.

Trustee Brad Bonner expressed some frustration that parents do not have enough information about the university’s plans for the fall semester and stated that it needs to step up communications.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Campus Mental Health and Wellness Update.
Alexander/O’Neil/Courtney
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Interim Provost Anne Alexander discussed the mental stressors of the COVID-19 pandemic experienced by students, faculty, and staff as the pandemic shifted study, work, and daily engagement to online and socially distanced formats. Alexander described the decline in the health and wellness of the UW community, and through a presentation to the Board on campus mental health and wellness, discussed the work of Academic Affairs to gather information and respond to stresses to members of the university campus during the COVID-19 pandemic. Alexander discussed improvement to communication of campus services available to students and employees, further describing the Parent Outreach and Mental Health Resource campaign to engage and connect parents to their UW students.

Trustee Carol Linton commend staff for providing creative solutions during the pandemic and in response to Trustee Linton’s inquiry, Dean of Students and Associate Vice President for Student Affairs Ryan O’Neil stated that necessary responses to COVID-19 has allowed for implementation of new strategies around support services. Trustee Jeff Marsh thanked O’Neil for her dedication and hard work. Trustee Michelle Sullivan concurred.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Financing/Bond Resolution, Theobald/Jewell

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Deputy Vice President for Finance David Jewell discussed administration’s recommended issuance of Facilities Revenue and Refunding Revenue Bonds Series 2021 (the “Series 2021 Bonds”) for the purpose of providing monies to refund all or a portion of the Board’s Outstanding Parity Bonds as defined in a proposed Resolution, and as determined by a Pricing Committee, to facilitate the acquisition and purchase of the Bison Village apartment complex and related facilities. Jewell described the debt is anticipated to be structured to consist of tax-exempt revenue bonds. The Series 2021 Bonds shall mature no later than June 1, 2044 and shall bear interest at a rate or rates resulting in a true interest cost of not to exceed 4.000%. Jewell stated the proposed Resolution authorizes and designates the Pricing Committee to pursue a competitive or negotiated sale by means of a public offering, limited public offering or pursuant to a private or direct placement pursuant to the terms of a bond purchase agreement or a notice of sale. Representatives from the University’s bond counsel, Kutak Rock LLP and financial advisors, PFM Financial Advisors LLC, were available to respond to questions from the Board. Chairman Trustee Marsh appointed Trustees John McKinley and Macey Moore to the Bond Pricing Committee.

Financing/Bond Resolution

Approved 3-25-2021 @ 10:26 a.m.

Trustee Macey Moore moved the Board authorize administration to approve and adopt: “A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF NOT TO EXCEED $83,000,000 OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING, FACILITIES REVENUE AND REFUNDING REVENUE BONDS, SERIES 2021, IN ONE OR MORE SERIES FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE ACQUISITION OF CERTAIN PROPERTY AND FACILITIES DESCRIBED HEREIN AND FOR THE PURPOSE OF REFUNDING ALL OR A PORTION OF THE BONDS SELECTED BY THE PRICING COMMITTEE AND/OR THE ISSUER REPRESENTATIVE, PURSUANT TO W.S. 21-17-402 THROUGH 21-17-450, PRESCRIBING THE FORM, FIXING THE DETAILS AND PROVIDING FOR THE PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL OF, PREMIUM, IF ANY, AND INTEREST ON SUCH SERIES 2021 BONDS AND THE APPLICATION OF THE PROCEEDS THEREOF; AND PROVIDING FOR OTHER MATTERS IN CONNECTION THEREWITH.” Trustee Kermit Brown seconded the motion. The motion passed with a unanimous decision.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Spring Enrollment Census Day Report, Moore

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Associate Vice Provost for Enrollment Management Kyle Moore presented the Spring Enrollment Census Day Report. Moore discussed enrollment figures that included total headcount, transfer student headcount, student credit hours, first time student headcount, headcount by classification, first time in state and out of state students and transfer in state and out of state student as of February 10, 2021.

Trustee John McKinley stated that to protect future enrollment, it is very important to have a clear message that the university will have in person classes in the fall. Trustee McKinley further urged for clear communication of this message and the supporting plans as previously stated by Board members during the president’s COVID-19 report at this meeting.

Trustee Jeff Marsh stated his sense of the Board’s desire is in support of in person classes in the fall to the extent that it is safe. Trustee Macey Moore invited administrator response to how the Board can support better communication of fall semester plans. Moore discussed statewide outreach efforts to include the World Needs More Cowboys campaign, as well as signing day events. Kyle Moore further stated his unit will elevate communication that 79.4% of fall classes will be in-person/traditional. In response to an inquiry made by Trustee Carol Linton regarding the percentage of in person course offerings, Moore reported the percentage of 2021 fall semester in person course format is slightly higher than what was offered in fall of 2019.

Associate Vice President of Communications and Marketing Chad Baldwin reported on the efforts of communicating the return to a more traditional semester. Baldwin expressed support for communicating specifics to the university community. President Seidel discussed the potential impact of a video, and other campaign measures to support momentum for a fall opening. Prompted by Trustee Brad Bonner, there was Board discussion around the efficacy of using various advertising channels. Trustee Brad LaCroix invited President Seidel to address K-12 School Superintendents to discuss the university’s fall semester plans.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Enrollment Management Plan to include Financial Aid, Recruitment Marketing Plan, and Transfer Initiatives (FY23) (approval at May meeting), Moore/Courtney/Jewell
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Associate Vice Provost for Enrollment Management Kyle Moore discussed student recruitment and retention efforts and how these dovetail with a 2022/2023 financial aid strategy. Moore provided a summary of the financial aid strategy approved by the Board at its July 2019 meeting for the 2020-21 academic year. Associate Vice Provost and Dean of Student Success Nycole Courtney provided narrative to Student Recruitment and Retention Efforts 2020-21 as presented to the Board. This presentation discussed the scope and examples of recruitment and retention efforts leading to the 2021 fall enrollment. Courtney provided examples of digital ads, communication plans and new initiatives for increasing recruitment and retention.

Trustee Elizabeth Greenwood inquired whether testimonies from successful alumni would be a useful recruitment tool, and suggested a “Why Wyoming” campaign to promote success stories. In response, Associate Vice President of Communications and Marketing Chad Baldwin updated Trustee Greenwood on current UW campaign efforts to include the World Needs More Cowboys, and offered to provide new Trustees with links to campaign videos. Courtney reported on an upcoming project that would focus on student connection while enrolled at the university, and opportunity beyond graduation.

Trustee Michelle Sullivan discussed aspiration for the student experience to align with how the university is presented in its campaigns. Trustee Sullivan further expressed the importance of providing student the experience that they expect. Trustee Sullivan went on to discuss contemplating opportunities to incentivize interconnection and community. Trustee Sullivan stated the need to support young people with personal connections post COVID-19.

Trustee Kermit Brown stated that State Senator Cale Case has championed work to remedy the lack of Wyoming news reach to in the far western and eastern areas of the state, but there are portions of the state that do not receive Wyoming news and radio and recommended special outreach to these areas. In response to inquiry from President Seidel, Chad Baldwin stated that digital advertising is targeted toward specific in state demographics. Baldwin further spoke to various opportunities through small nontraditional news channels. Trustee Brad LaCroix discussed the benefits of in person the World Needs More Cowboys events across the state.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Strategic Scenario Planning Update, Alexander
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Interim Provost Anne Alexander provided the Board a brief progress update on the university’s strategic scenario planning in response to budget reductions. Alexander reminded the Board of the goals to the exercise, which will create the foundation to a strategic plan. Alexander described the exploration of President Seidel’s four pillars (to become more inclusive, digital, interdisciplinary, and entrepreneurial) and ways to be responsive to the needs of the state as the institution reorganizes in response to budget reductions, while staying true to the institution’s mission. Alexander described the commitment to student experience and success throughout the process and discussed the results of surveys and collection of feedback from the Strategic Scenario Planning listening Sessions. Alexander described the timeline of the portfolio review.

Trustee Macey Moore discussed the strategic planning listening sessions and the benefit of information gathering, and stated consistent themes about the value of education at UW were made clear. President Seidel expressed gratitude to Alexander for leading the strategic scenario planning, further stating that some of the work toward new idea generation has been productive so far, but will continue well past May 2021.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Biennium Budget Committee, McKinley/Jewell
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Trustee John McKinley reported on the work of the Biennium Budget Committee and provided an update on the discussion of UW Campus Housing. The committee requested administration provide interrelated timelines on bond financing and construction accompanied by a schedule of required decisions. Trustee McKinley reported the committee revisited the discussion of the horse boarding facility that took place at the January 2021 Board meeting, and further considered associated student fees. In response to inquiry from Trustee Carol Linton, Trustee McKinley provided background of the decision-making around appropriate horse boarding fees. Trustee McKinley reminded the Board that the state legislature provided funding for the horse boarding facility, and stated that it would be prudent for the marginal cost to be charged. Trustee Kermit Brown stated his comfort with the proposed $80.00 monthly fee. Trustee Brown further described the legislative appropriation for the facility fell short of cost. Trustee Brown discussed the ongoing legislative appropriation for the UW rodeo team. Trustee Dave True clarified the committee’s recommendation is for one year with a request for a re-examination of the topic in January 2022.
Trustee McKinley provided an update on the capital construction report and stated state capital construction requests will be finalized in May, presented to the Biennium Budget Committee, and then to the Board. Trustee McKinley reviewed the timeline for the May FY22 budget hearings, stating he anticipated a balanced budget at the conclusion of the hearings. Trustee McKinley reported the committee received an update on FY22/23 financial aid strategy, and would revisit the topic in May.

Reports

ASUW Report, Talamantes

ASUW President Riley Talamantes provided a report to the Board describing ASUW activities to include follow up discussion regarding ASUW support for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) students at the university. Talamantes stated that with assistance from the UW Foundation and collaboration with the International Students and Scholars Office, ASUW will launch a You Fund campaign to fundraise for an endowed scholarship for students who are not citizens of the United States. Talamantes provided update on ASUW scholarship awards, and ongoing projects with the Food Security task force. Talamantes stated the task force initiatives have been funded through ASUW’s budget allocating $42,000 from Student Success Priorities and has been the primary budget for the Food Share Pantry this fiscal year. Talamantes went on to discuss collaboration with the women on the College Panhellenic Council to host a women in leadership event. Talamantes closed her report summarizing the thoughtful discussions between ASUW and President Seidel about creating a welcoming environment to all students at UW. Talamantes provided information about the April 7, 2021, Town Hall with students and President Seidel to encourage dialogue about experiences as a student on campus.

Staff Senate Report, Stratton
A report from President of Staff Senate Christopher Stratton was not provided.

Faculty Senate Report, Michalak
Faculty Senate Chairman Rudi Michalak provided a summary of the Senate’s work toward a recommendation to President Ed Seidel related to modification of UW Regulation 2-13 (Academic Program Reorganization, Consolidation, Reduction and Discontinuance). Michalak stated the faculty senate prefers to not modify UW Regulation 2-13 as such is perceived as an “attack on tenure”.

Trustee Marsh discussed efforts in response to budget reductions and provided assurance the institution is trying to respond to the budget reductions in the most responsible way possible. In response to inquiry from Trustee McKinley, Michalak clarified the faculty perception of an attack on tenure is in response to the proposed modifications to Regulation 2-13.
