THE UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

SUMMARY MINUTES OF THE TRUSTEES

PUBLIC SESSION
March 22-24, 2023
University of Wyoming Mission Statement (July 2017)

We honor our heritage as the state’s flagship and land-grant university by providing accessible and affordable higher education of the highest quality; rigorous scholarship; the communication and application of knowledge; economic and community development; and responsible stewardship of our cultural, historical and natural resources.

In the exercise of our primary mission to promote learning, we seek to provide academic and co-curricular opportunities that will:

• Graduate students who have experienced the frontiers of scholarship and creative activity and who are prepared for the complexities of an interdependent world;
• Cultivate a community of learning energized by collaborative work among students, faculty, staff and external partners;
• Nurture an environment that values and manifests diversity, internationalization, free expression, academic freedom, personal integrity and mutual respect; and
• Promote opportunities for personal health and growth, physical health, athletic competition and leadership development for all members of the university community.

As Wyoming’s only public university, we are committed to scholarship, outreach and service that extend our human talent and technological capacity to serve the people in our communities, our state, the nation and the world.
As will be reflected in the public and executive session meeting minutes, the Board of Trustees of the University of Wyoming met in Laramie, Wyoming, on Wednesday, March 22, 2023, Thursday, March 23, 2023, and Friday, March 24, 2023. Committee Meetings were held on Wednesday, March 22, 2023. The Board’s business meeting was held on Friday, March 24, 2023.

Executive Session Information .................................................................19
Thursday, March 23, 2023
Meeting Location: Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Recognitions – McKinley
Trustee McKinley invited Vice President for Student Affairs Kim Chestnut to introduce members of staff and residence assistants who played a critical role in student safety during the Orr Hall fire on February 14, 2023. Trustee McKinley expressed thanks on behalf of the Board.

Certificate of Gratitude and Appreciation
03-23-2023 @ 10:02 a.m.

Trustee John McKinley moved the following Board resolution:

Whereas, just past midnight on the 14th day of February 2023, the Orr Hall Residence Life staff responded to a fire in a residence hall room that resulted in the evacuation of the entire building.
Whereas, the student employees working as Resident Assistants worked quickly going door-to-door to notify residents and guide students to the evacuation rendezvous point outside of the residence hall, going above and beyond to get everyone safely out of the building.
Whereas, Resident Assistant Kennedy Heninger took responsive action to access a fire extinguisher and put out the flames in the room before firefighters arrived which minimized the damage to the facility and nullified danger posed to the residents.
Whereas, the Resident Assistant team worked diligently with full-time staff and first responders to ensure safety protocols were followed, residents were informed, and that all residents displaced from the fire had lodging for the night.
Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the Board of Trustees at the University of Wyoming hereby acknowledges and extends gratitude for the monumental effort of Kennedy Heninger, the Residence Coordinator, and outstanding Resident Assistant staff in response to the danger posed by the fire.

Trustee Kermit Brown seconded the motion. The motion carried with a unanimous decision.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Update to Board – Seidel
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:

UW President Ed Seidel reported on April 12-13, the university will co-host National Lab Day with the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE); the event is an opportunity for the University of Wyoming community to connect with leaders and scientists from all 17 national labs and explore opportunities for collaboration and discuss topics from energy to the environment to business and industry. President Seidel discussed attendees to include Wyoming Governor Mark Gordon, Under Secretary for Science and Innovation Geri Richmond; Deputy Director of the Office of Science Harriet Kung; Assistant Secretary for Fossil Fuels and Carbon Management Brad Crabtree; and Assistant Secretary for Nuclear Energy Katy Huff. President Seidel stated that as the university aspires to Carnegie R1 status, events like National Lab Day help to demonstrate its commitment to research excellence across all disciplines. President Seidel discussed his ongoing statewide engagement, describing a visit to the Wind River Reservation, a university community event in Newcastle, and a hosted event with Laramie’s elected officials. President Seidel discussed work toward increased student success, enrollment, recruitment, retention and graduation and updated the Board on the launch of the university’s partnership with Shorelight to raise the university’s international profile.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Research Excellence: Institute for Managing Annual Grasses Invading Natural Ecosystems -- Mealor
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Sheridan Research and Extension Center Director Brian Mealor presented information about the work of the Institute for Managing Annual Grasses Invading Natural Ecosystems (IMAGINE) that in its mission uses coproduced science, outreach, and education programs to develop, implement, evaluate, and adjust statewide and regional strategies for mitigating the impacts of invasive annual grasses in rangelands while empowering informed decision making by landowners and managers. In response to Board inquiry, Mealor discussed opportunities to educate and provide tools to land managers and spoke to historic grazing practices stating practices are now agnostic and invasive grasses have moved beyond impacts of grazing.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Report on Campus Parking – Brown/Seidel/Mai
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:
Trustee Kermit Brown, and Vice President for Campus Operations Bill Mai provided an update to the Board on the status of parking on campus. He addressed progress on the Ivinson Parking Garage, parking options on campus, and transit options for the UW community. Trustee Kermit Brown and Vice President for Campus Operations Bill Mai provided summary and the year’s long decision-making timeline related to changes to parking on campus as a result of the Campus Master Plan (approved by the Board in May 2020) and the work of the legislative Task Force on Campus Housing. Mai reported the Wyoming Union lot will be officially closed and parking permanently taken offline at the end of May 2023 as construction of new campus housing commences. Mai stated that upon completion of the Ivinson Parking Garage, and other surface lots, the university will have an additional 215 new parking spaces by December 2023. In response to request for information from Chairman McKinley, Mai discussed the cost of parking on campus and the three parking areas that are free of charge with access to a complimentary campus shuttle. UW President Ed Seidel stated he has traveled via shuttle from satellite lots and found the service reliable. Mai reported on the plan for a shuttle bus route between the Ivinson Parking Garage to the 13th street spur near the Wyoming Union and reminded that parking enforcement is from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and in response to Board inquiry, discussed the recent changes to parking permitting. In response to remark from Trustee Fall, Mai concurred wayfinding and outreach will be necessary in advance of the football season.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Update on UW’s Response to Artificial Intelligence Platforms – Seidel
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
In January 2023 President Seidel charged a working group to examine Artificial Intelligence (AI) as it relates to higher education, generally, and UW, specifically, and to develop recommendations on how UW can address this technology in ways that maintain academic integrity and promote student, faculty, and staff success. President Seidel discussed the recommendations of the working group to include modifications to academic policies such as student academic dishonesty; the need to support instructors navigating new technologies; communications to students on appropriate use and academic integrity; and the need to anticipate and prepare for the evolution of AI.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Update on Wyoming Innovation Partnership (WIP) Proposals – Seidel

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
UW President Ed Seidel reported in January 2023, in collaboration with Wyoming’s community colleges, UW submitted proposals for Phase II of WIP funding in the priority areas of advanced manufacturing, agriculture, computing research and education, energy and natural resources, entrepreneurship, and healthcare. President Seidel provided an update on UW’s proposals for Phase II WIP funding as well as an overview of the selection process to be conducted by the Governor’s Office.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Update on Science Initiative Director, Programming, and Space – Seidel/Chitnis

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Vice President for Research and Economic Development Parag Chitnis discussed his goal to transition the Science Initiative (SI) into an institute during FY2023-24 with a further goal to make it fully staffed and functional by 2025. President Seidel stated the transition will reimagine the SI to incorporate the interdisciplinary nature of modern science, transformative impacts of digital technologies on STEM education and research, increased importance of convergence as a path to innovation, and realization that inclusion is prerequisite to excellence. In response to inquiry from Trustee John McKinley, Chitnis discussed coordinating full occupancy of the SI with the completion of the shelved space. UW President Seidel expressed his pleasure about the direction of the SI.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Report from Alumni Association Director - Jack Tennant

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
University of Wyoming Alumni Association (UWAA) Executive Director Jack Tennant along with Vice President for Student Affairs Kim Chestnut, and UWAA Board President Terry Moss, provided the Board an update on the achievements and growth of the UWAA in the last year, and discussed team reorganization, and alumni engagement strategy going forward. Tennant provided a summary of challenges and achievements at the UWAA, stating success is owed to the work culture and the people on his team. Tennant discussed ways in which the UWAA can build on its mission, and the benefit to creating an associate director position. Tennant discussed the Affinity Network and discussed attention to branding when planning UWAA events. Tennant spoke to the generosity of University of Wyoming alumni and spoke about the plans for Homecoming.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Report Spring Enrollment Census Information – Moore

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Vice Provost for Enrollment Management Kyle Moore discussed Spring Census date enrollment numbers stating, while not unexpected, there is a decrease in enrollment from this spring to spring of 2022, citing a lagging number of students who did not return to the university after the COVID-19 Pandemic. In response to inquiry from Trustee John McKinley, Moore stated the total number of credit hours per student is steady. Trustee McKinley stated freshman, sophomore, and senior as classified in the data provided equates to credit hours and recommended some clarification in future reports. In response to further inquiry from Trustee McKinley, Moore stated there are enough sections of required classes but the classes are not always scheduled at times convenient to students.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: 2023 Saddle Up Programming Preliminary Plan – Carman/Chestnut/Alexander/Courtney

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Executive Vice President and Provost Kevin Carman, Vice President for Student Affairs Kim Chestnut, Vice Provost for Strategic Planning Anne Alexander, and Dean of Student Success and Graduation Nycole Courtney provided information related to the proposed schedule and programming for Saddle Up 2023. Carman provided a snapshot of the positive impact on freshman retention related to students who participated in Saddle Up 2022. In response to inquiry from Trustee John McKinley, Carman provided thoughts on channels to communicate information about and benefits to participation in the program the program. Carman further stated that College of Business Dean Scott Beaulier reports a 96% fall to spring retention rate attributed to participation in Saddle Up 2022. Courtney discussed the proposed Saddle Up 2023 schedule and invited Board feedback. Alexander discussed academic components to the program. Trustee Macey Moore stated the length of the programming is a challenge to new students and encouraged further consideration be made to better accommodate FFA students engaged in the Wyoming State Fair. Carman replied the multi-day format is integral to the success of the program and described the ability of students to request special accommodation. In response to an inquiry from Trustee Elizabeth Greenwood, Carman stated the program is mandatory for incoming students. ASUW President Allison Brown reiterated the feedback received from students about the lack of ample time for meals during Saddle Up 2022. Courtney described the adjustments considered to help facilitate service of meals. Trustee McKinley recommended administration consider a condensed schedule provided to freshmen enrolled for the Spring semester as a pilot-program, which might inform future fall semester programming. Carman stated that the spring freshman tend to be a different type of student than fall freshman, but administration is considering programming for spring. Trustee McKinley requested a report to the Board at its September 2023 meeting with initial results of the program and an in-depth report during the November 2023 meeting related to what modifications could be made to continue to improve the program.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Future of Marketing and Communication Efforts at UW – Seidel

MINUTES OF THE MEETING
UW President Ed Seidel discussed the future vision of the university’s marketing and communications enterprise required to support the achievement of UW’s 2023+ Strategic Plan and related goals including the achievement of Carnegie R1 status. President Seidel stated that the realization of the strategic plan’s objectives to 1) enhance student success, 2) pursue institutional excellence, 3) provide a supportive community, 4) engage with and serve the state of Wyoming, and 5) cultivate financial stability and diversification will require enhanced marketing and communications resources. President Seidel stated that the future of marketing and communication efforts at UW should include the creation of a Vice President for Marketing and Communications to lead a collaborative enterprise that supports the university in achieving its highest goals. Trustee John McKinley advised administration should consider its proposed strategies might collide with the overall vision of the individual governing boards of the UW Foundation and UW Alumni Association. Trustee Jim Mathis provided insight related to WyoTech student recruitment and retention and stressed the importance of brand consistency across the colleges. Trustee McKinley recommended Vice President for Government Affairs and Community Engagement Mike Smith connect with Trustee Mathis to discuss adoption of marketing strategies related to student recruitment that might benefit the university. Trustee Michelle Sullivan added that part of the process of building a brand toward recruitment is providing parents and students the tools to successfully navigate the admissions process. State Superintendent for Public Instruction Megan Degenfelder discussed potential collaborations and reported on her conversations with College of Education Dean Scott Thomas related to recruitment of high school students and information sharing with high school counselors. Trustee McKinley requested President Seidel be mindful of the university’s reputational risk as administration proposes changes to recruitment, retention and marketing; that it should recognize the harm of an inability to deliver on what is promised to parents, students, faculty, staff and the broader university community. Trustee McKinley encouraged administration recognize the success of The World Needs More Cowboys campaign adopted at the July 2018 Board meeting. Trustee McKinley requested President Seidel provide follow up information on progress during the May 2023 Board meeting, with an update during the September 2023 Board meeting providing a date by which recommendations will be executed. Trustee McKinley further requested administration identify a process by which Board members are able to provide feedback on the recommended plan.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: AMK Ranch 2023 Scheduling, Staffing, and Use – Chitnis/Mai

MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
Vice President for Campus Operations Bill Mai provided the Board a brief update on winter maintenance at AMK Ranch, and the status of the removal of the Boise Cascade structure. In response to Trustee inquiry, Mai stated that the university does not have authorization to build a replacement structure, and that other buildings are on a cistern system that is drained in preparation for the winter season. Vice President for Research and Economic Development Parag Chitnis discussed upcoming research and educational programming at AMK Ranch. In response to Trustee John McKinley’s request the programming be well publicized, Chitnis discussed collaboration with the UW Foundation to create a marketing and fundraising campaign. In response to inquiry from Trustee David Fall, Chitnis reported that of the research performed at the AMK Ranch through seed grants, 7 out of 13 grants are to university projects. UW President Ed Seidel discussed upcoming residencies will be held by Cardiff University, and Argonne Nation Laboratory. Trustee John McKinley encouraged Trustees to visit the AMK Ranch this summer.

AGENDA ITEM TITLE: Information: Integrated Test Center, Campbell County – Krutka
MINUTES OF THE MEETING:
School of Energy Resources Executive Director Holly Krutka discussed communication from Wyoming Governor Mark Gordon dated March 7, 2023, delegating management, administration and operation of the Integrated Test Center (ITC) to the University of Wyoming School of Energy Resources (SER). Krutka stated the university and SER’s main functions with the ITC will be to administer contracts (e.g., the lease with Basin Electric, contracts with onsite contractors, etc.), provide financial oversight, recruit CO₂ capture technology tenants and management and provide a vision and plan for the future of the site. Trustee Dave True expressed appreciation that oversight was being assigned to SER.

Nichols commended UW President Seidel on the recent Town Hall. Nichols reported Staff Senate recently hired a full-time office associate, and thanked those who were instrumental in the process.

Faculty Senate Report
Faculty Senate Chairman Renee Laegreid reported Faculty Senate continues to work with Administration to address common concerns, such as college reorganizations, navigating regulation modifications associated with Chat GTP, and Bitcoin mining. Laegreid discussed efforts to improve the process for approving new minors and majors at the department level. Laegreid reported Faculty Senate’s Executive Committee met with Vice Provost of Online and Continuing Education Matt Griswold, to discuss the university’s vision for distance education. Laegreid reported collaboration with the Office of the President on Spring Convocation and Presidential Fellows. Laegreid reported that the Presidential Fellows program is beneficial to both faculty and administration, as faculty have the opportunity to learn and understand the environment in which administrators work, encouraging dialogue necessary to overcome issues. Laegreid reported UW President Ed Seidel announced a new fellow for artificial intelligence (AI) and stated her hope that the fellow would interrogate the ethics of AI, open up the philosophical approach, and bring in the Humanities, which are not well integrated into the Fellows program at this time.
