The Board of Trustees of the University of Wyoming place upon their records the following memorial! -

After one year of active service, death has severed the relations existing between Charles W. Lewis, President of the University of Wyoming and this its Board of Trustees. He assumed the task of building up this institution with fervent hope, unfailing love and the vigor of manhood in its prime. It was his aim to bring the University home to the people of this State, to make it the possession and the benefactor of the commonwealth. In this he never faltered, and the fruit of wise & faithful service is already seen in greater efficiency, more widespread recognition, and the birth of an enthusiasm for the higher education, without which any system does not deserve the name. We are parted from him in the full maturity of his power and usefulness, and extending as we do to his immediate family a sympathy which cannot be expressed in words, on behalf of that larger family, the citizenship of this State, we pay this tribute to the wise & helpful & strong spirit whose influence will remain forever.

Sir:-

We, your duly appointed auditing Committee beg to make the following report:-

We have examined the books of the Secretary, the report of the Treasurer and the report and the report of the State Examiner and find that the balances agree.

While the State Examiner upon whom we rely for an examination of the vouchers for the purpose of ascertaining as to whether there be or not a lawful voucher for every expenditure charged, does not directly state in his lengthy report that the same would be incomplete without reference to the satisfactory accounting by the Secretary of all the business transacted by her during the year. There is every evidence ~~of~~ in the care of handling of accounts.

We take this to mean that he has so examined ~~the~~ her accounts and the vouchers covering the same and that he found the moneys of the Institution had been properly paid out and expended.

It was for this purpose that we asked the assistance of the State Examiner and we are credibly informed that he was at work with his assistant for four days in the performance thereof. The Committee has found it impossible to do this work within the time which could properly be expended during the session of the Board. We therefore recommend that the report filed by the State Examiner be referred back to him with the request that he make it fully and more definite in regard to the matters which attention is above called to, so that in case a careful examination of the vouchers on file was not made by him to the ascertainment that there be a legal voucher for each disbursement that we be so informed and that the matter of auditing these accounts may again be referred to a Committee at our next see page 197 - This resolution was how made but not passed until after Mr. Morton left the meeting.

The following resolution was then presented by Mr. A. J. Mokler, and was unanimously passed. After voting, the yeas and nays were taken which proved that all were in favor of the passage of the resolution:-

Whereas, G. E. Morton, heretofore an employe of this board and a member of the faculty of the University of Wyoming, has ~~seem~~ seen fit through the public press, to impugn the actions of this board and its members and to charge the mismanagement of the institution, as we believe, wrongfully, but to the injury of its reputation throughout the state, therefore be it

Resolved:-

Governor asked for Investigating Committee

That the Governor of the State be and he is hereby respectfully requested to appoint such a commission as shall seem to him suitable, not only to investigate the truth of the charges preferred by Mr. Morton, but to hear any other complaints that may be made against the management of said institution, and likewise to hear any suggestions that may be offered or make any that may seem best to this commission for the better operation of such institution to the end that not only justice may be done in the matter, but that the largest possible good may be secured to the people of the state through the instrumentality of said institution.

Resolved:-

That it would be pleasing to this board if the governor of this state would act as chairman of such commission.

Resolved:-

Morton Offered

That this Board deplores the attempt that is being made on the part of some to drag this institution, which sorely needs the support of all for its upbuilding, into state politics, and especially into the local politics of the city of Laramie. And be it further

Resolved:-

That we deplore and condemn the conduct of G. E. Morton in making his complaint and preferred his charges through the press instead of to this board while an employe thereof and a member of the faculty of this institution, and we take this occasion to denounce his conduct in so doing as uncalled for, unprofessional and dishonorable.

*This resolution was presented here but not passed until Mr. Morton retired from the meeting.

Mr. H. B. Henderson, State Examiner, has appeared before the Board and presented his annual report. The following Committees for this meeting were then appointed. The figures of the report of Mr. Henderson should go to the auditing Committee and the auditing Committee to consist of Messers Mokler, Knight, and Stevens. The Secretary then read Mr. Henderson's report in full and the same was ordered to be accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Henderson's report

Committees

President Fairman also appointed Museum Committee Mrs. Stone, Messers Crawford & Burke. The President of the University was asked to see Mr. Morton, former Associate Professor of Animal Industry, now connected with the Colo. Agricultural College at Ft. Collins, who had made charges in the press against the University & its officers

1907 June 4 Mr. Norton appears and notify him that the Board of Trustees was now in session and to ask him if he had any charges to make of mismanagement before this Board, or if he had any corrections to make, or additions to present, further than those he had made before the public press; if it were found he did not this Board was to request of him his bill for the actual expenses incurred, with vouchers, while complying with the subpoena of State Examiner Henderson that he should appear in Laramie this day.

President Liddell returned with the report that Mr. Norton had been found and would appear before the Board as soon as he obtained some of his papers that were down town.

L. G. E. Norton has appeared before the Board.

Voted that reporters for the press be allowed to appear before this Board while Mr. Norton was present. Then Mr. Norton asked to have a stenographer. This was granted. After some moments a stenographer was present for Mr. Norton, also for the Laramie & a reporter for the Republican and also Boomerang.

Hon. J. F. Burke occupied the chair during Mr. Norton's presence before the board & conducted the proceedings. Mr. Burke asked Mr. Norton if he had any charges or criticisms to make against the University he might now present them. Mr. Norton stated that he had nothing to add to the charges before the Board, but what he had he would present at a public meeting at 2 P. M. in the Auditorium before the State Examiner - that at such meeting he would submit his affidavits if such meeting was not to public - that he would not submit any information to a partial committee - as this Board was. After a very few questions were asked - Dr. Burke told Dr. Morkin he was excused -

*Then the resolution as appears on page 193 195 was passed -

Adjourned until 1.30 P.M -

After recess -

All members present as at morning session -

Secretary then read her report as follows.

Moved That the same be received & placed on file -

Building Tax $ 15.33.

3/8 Mill Tax	17,608.82.
University Land Income	3,697.60

Balance on hand to date
Morrill Fund	5,148.35
State Fund.	9,633.59.
Hatch. "	4,427.18
Adams Fund	1,248.61.
Philo Bennett.	407.00
Scholarship Fund.	185.00.
		$21,249.65.

From the balance, or an estimate, there will be spent in accordance with the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1907, there will be spent all the balances of the Morrill, Hatch and Adams fund, leaving in the Bennet Prize fund $407.00 (and $24.00 interest which has been turned in since the books were balanced); from the Scholarship fund $135.00 and from the State fund $4,515.78. This is within $30.00 of the balance we had on hand a year ago, June 1906. Next year we will not receive any revenue from the University Land Income Fund, as this fund is dispersed only every other year. The increased valuation of the assessable property in the state will bring a slight revenue from that source; while the Morrill and Hatch fund remain stationery at $25,000 and $15,000, respectfully each fund receives additional aid from the federal government. This year we will receive benefit from a federal Act known as the Nelson Endowment Act, which grants to Agricultural Colleges the sum of $5,000 for this year, to be increased annually $5,000 until the amount reaches $25,000, which will give the College ultimately $50,000.00 in place of the $25,000.00 now received. The restrictions surrounding the expenditure of this additional endowment is practically the same as of the Morrill Fund. The Hatch Fund remains the same at $15,000 but the relief fund known as the Adams started last year at $5,000; this year it is $7,000 and next year $9,000 increasing at the rate of $2,000 annually until $15,000 is reached, making $30,000 for ~~experimen~~ experimentation. Unlike the Nelson fund the Adams fund has restrictions surrounding it more rigid than the Hatch Fund; certain purchases and expenditures cannot be made from it that the Hatch can make. For instance from the Adams fund we are not limited to the amount we spend in the purchase of stock, but not a dollar may be expended for feeding such livestock industry. In other words we are obliged to discriminate between original investigation in a strict sense as required by the Adams act and ordinary experimental work required by the Hatch act. Under the new depository law the University was not mentioned as an institution handling money that should come under the provision of the law. The executive Committee believing the intent of the law was to include all public money of the state and on bid awarded to the First National Bank of Laramie as a depository for the money with a two ½ % rate of interest., State Examiner Henderson has stated that each fund for the University purposes should be kept separate and the interest accruing to each fund be given to such fund. Your Secretary raised the question if this was just or within the interpretation of the law. The State, through the Bank, paid this interest, not the federal government. If the interest went to the federal funds the question immediately presented itself, would that interest be surrounded by the same federal restrictions as the original funds are placed? The interest will amount to about $625 and that sum small as it may seem can be used infinitely better for State purposes than for the purposes designated by the federal acts. Mr. Henderson has not yet given his final opinion on the subject but has promised to consider the question in the light as here presented.

1907 June 4

Respectfully submitted,

[signature]

Secretary.

The auditing Committee presented its report as follows & it was Voted, That the report as read be accepted & placed on file.-

June 4, 1907

To the Board of Trustees
University of Wyoming,

Gentlemen:- We, your auditing committee beg leave to report as follows:- we have examined the reports of the Secretary, the Treasurer and the State Examiner and find that the balances therein agree.

Auditing Committee

We have also examined some of the bills in the Morrill Hatch & Adams Funds, but owing to the voluminousness of said bills we find that we have been unable to make a complete and thorough investigation — Therefore, we must rely upon the report of the State Examiner made to the Governor, and submitted to this Board.

We are further advised by the State Examiner, that legal vouchers are on file showing that all moneys has been properly expended and that the vouchers have been examined, the receipts taken into account, the expenditures classified, so far as we are able to ascertain there has been especial care in the expenditures of the funds in the handling of the accounts -

(Signed) { A. J. Mokler
Harriet Knight
H. L. Pletcher

The resignation of Prof. B. C. Buffum was then read as follows! -

Director's Office. March 4. 1907 -

Hon Otto Gramm. President
Board of Trustees of the Univ. of Wyo.
Laramie, Wyo.

Prof. Buffum resigns

Dear Sir:-

I hereby resign from the University of Wyoming and the Wyoming Experiment Station, and ask that you relieve me from the regular duties of such position as early as can be made convenient. June 1, if possible.

This step is not taken without some measure of regret. I would be remiss also if I allowed the brevity of my resignation to interfere with an expression of appreciation. My incumbency began March 15, 1891, and, with the exception of two years' absence, has been continuous in one of the most important fields of labor a young State could offer. This field has differed from others in being ~~virgin~~ undeveloped and unique. The reputation I have gained as a scientist and as a man are priceless, and to those friends on the Board and in the State who have given me their confidence, I owe a debt of gratitude. I will remain a citizen of Wyoming, still hoping to achieve much as a scientist, and pledge continued loyalty to Wyoming's institutions of learning & research.

None appreciate more, and due to the executive position I have held, perhaps none know more intimately the broad and unselfish policies of your Board of Trustees for the upbuilding of the University & the Experiment Station. It has been necessary to do pioneer work, and the funds have been all too small, but I can testify that in no institution with which I am acquainted is there so little interference, or greater liberty, or broader opportunity, or more disinterested support than that which I have enjoyed while laboring under your authority. I withdraw at a time of unprecedented prosperity, and shall ever pray that the work so well begun may continue to contribute greater benefits to our people and shed greater glory on the State.

Yours truly,

B. C. Buffum.

(Director & Professor of Agriculture and Horticulture)

Buffum payment equal to one months Salary, $200.=, with the understanding that said work shall be finished & completed by the first of July 1907, when said payment shall be made - The resignation of W. The Secretary of the Board then read the report in full as follows: -

Investigating Committee.

Report of Investigating Commission.

LARAMIE, WYO., July 17, 1907.

To His Excellency, B. B. Brooks,
Governor of Wyoming,
Cheyenne, Wyoming.

SIR:—Your commission appointed to investigate the affairs of the University of Wyoming has completed its investigation, and respectfully reports to you as follows:

On the 15th day of July, 1907, the commission met at the City of Laramie, Wyoming, pursuant to its appointment and your directions, and proceeded to orgainze, all members being present. M. R. Johnston was seletced as chairman of the commission, and Charles A. Kutcher as secretary.

Thereupon the commission proceeded to view and inspect the grounds and buildings of the University. A thorough inspection was made of the Experimental Station, the stock farm, and the buildings situated upon the campus of the University proper. Thereafter the commission set out to interview the citizens of the City of Laramie relative to the University and the charges that have been made by the press and different citizens of the State against the same. The commission made diligent inquiry to ascertain the names of all persons having any knowledge relative to the management and affairs generally of the University, and notified the people of Laramie through the press and by personal notice that the investigation would proceed on the morning of the 16th day of July, at 9 o'clock a. m., at the Science Hall, on the University campus; that all proceedings would be public; and that the public were invited to attend the investigation.

The committee also requested, through the press and by personal invitation, that all persons having any knowledge of facts or circumstances throwing any light or information upon the conduct and affairs of the University should attend the proceedings of the commission and give their testimony.

The commission thoroughly acquainted itself with all the charges preferred against the University and the officers thereof, and endeavored to gather all the evidence tending in any manner to sustain or negative these charges, to the end that a full and fair investigation of these charges might be had, and full and exact justice might be done the institution as well as the public.

Thereafter, on the 16th day of July, 1907, at 9 o'clock a. m., the commission met at the Science Hall on the University campus, and proceeded to conduct a public examination of witnesses, which was concluded on the evening of July 17th, 1907. The testimony of these witnesses was taken down in shorthand by the official reporter of the commission, a full and true transcript of which we submit to you herewith. At this examination every person having any knowledge of facts relating to the management and conduct of the University was given absolute freedom to testify before the commission. The commission freely examined numerous witnesses who had been previously notified to appear, and also all witnesses who desired to offer their testimony to the commission. Among these witnesses were various citizens of the City of Laramie, different members of the Board of Trustees of the University, and all of the members of the University Faculty who were within reach of the commission.

During the course of the investigation every person who was reported to us as having any information bearing upon our inquiries was either interviewed personally by members of the commission or publicly examined before the commission. The sessions of the commission were all held at the Science Hall, on the University campus, between stated hours, and no person desiring to attend any session was excluded, and no one was denied an opportunity to present to the commission any information he or she might have relative to the conduct and the affairs of the institution.

From the personal inspection of the grounds and buildings of the Experimental Station, the stock farm, and of the University proper, and from our interview with the citizens of the City of Laramie and the public testimony given by witnesses before the commission and other inquiries of the same, we find as follows:

PURCHASE OF COAL.

In regard to the purchase of the coal by the University, we find the coal used by the institution has for some time past been purchased from the President of the Board of Trustees; and that the method of competitive bids has not been followed in the purchase of coal for the institution. This fact has been cited as an instance of "graft." While the commission believes that the fuel for the University should be purchased by competitive bids, there is no evidence upon which a charge of graft or dishonesty can be predicated. We find that the least expensive coal, suitable to the needs of the University, was purchased, and that a reasonable sum was paid therefor, and that the institution got value received for the money spent for coal. However, the commission believes that if the Board of Trustees had followed the plan of purchasing coal by competitive bids, the institution would have been relieved of a great deal of criticism and suspicion that has been directed against it.

UNIVERSITY PRINTING.

With regard to the printing done for the University, we find that this has been done mostly, if not altogether, by the Laramie Republican; and that competitive bids were not called for in letting the contracts. This has also been cited as an instance of dishonesty and graft, and has been made the subject of such charges. But in this particular we desire to make the same observations as were made with regard to the purchase of coal above referred to. We can find no instance where the University has paid an unreasonable sum for printing, or where the institution failed to receive full value for the money expended. On the contrary, we find that reasonable prices were paid for printing, and that the institution received good work for the money expended. We have been unable to find any tangible evidence of where the University suffered any material injury in consequence of its failure to let its printing contracts by competitive bids. But in this particular we find that criticisms of the press and of various citizens relative to the methods of the University in letting its printing contracts without competitive bids are not wholly without merit. We believe that an institution should not place itself in the position to be criticised, or its methods laid open to suspicion, by its neglect to follow recognized business methods in letting contracts of any considerable amount. The same business methods should be used in the conduct of the business of the University as are recognized and employed in successful private businesses.

POLITICS IN UNIVERSITY.

It has been charged that political influence pervades and dominates the University, and that political considerations govern the Board of Trustees, especially in respect to the purchase of supplies and letting of contracts. We have investigated every particle of evidence we could find, bearing upon this charge, and find that the same is not sustained. In pursuing this line of inquiry we have examined numerous citizens in the City of Laramie of different political affiliations, also every professor of the faculty within reach of us, and find no evidence whatever upon which such a charge could be founded. We find that while a Republican newspaper has received all of the printing business of the University, on the other hand a Democratic merchant of the City of Laramie has for the last two years received more than one-half of the University business distributed among the merchants of the City of Laramie. We have been unable to find any tangible evidence of where the Board of Trustees has been governed by considerations of politics in the expenditure of funds of the institution. Neither can we find any tangible evidence, or even hearsay opinion, that any political test has ever been applied by the Board of Trustees in the selection or dismissal of professors or servants of the institution. We examined all of the professors that were available to the commission, and in every instance they testified that no political influence was ever sought to be used over them either by suggestion or demand; that they were absolutely free and untrammeled in their political convictions and actions; and that the only restraint to which they felt themselves subjected was to endeavor to keep politics and political influences out of the work of the University.

MISAPPROPRIATION OF MONEY.

It has been charged that the Board of Trustees has been guilty of a misappropriation of the funds of the University. In regard to this charge we find that the same is made with reference to the appropriation of money from one fund of the University, when, it is said, the same should have been appropriated from another fund. But no instance has been cited and no evidence has been produced of any dishonesty or irregularity in the expenditure of the money. We find that the funds of the institution have been honestly expended, and every dollar accounted for. The appropriation of funds from one fund or from another is a matter resting in the discretion of the Board of Trustees, and so far as the evidence before the commission is concerned, no funds have been illegally appropriated from any fund. The commission finds the finances and the accounts of the University are regular and that the charges of illegal appropriation and expenditure of funds is without foundation. This conclusion is sustained both by the examination and report of the State Examiner and by the report of the examining officer of the United States Government.

ALLEGED INTERFERENCE.

It has also been charged that the Secretary of the Board of Trustees exercises undue influence in the University, and arrogates to herself powers that properly belong to other officers; that the said Secretary interferes in the various departments of the University. As regards this charge we find it wholly unfounded in fact. We find that the influence of the Secretary, wherever exercised, has been altogether wholesome and beneficial; that no attempt is made by said Secretary to usurp the powers of any other officer of the University; and that no undue influence is sought to be exerted by her in the various departments of the University. From the evidence presented to the commission, it appears that the Secretary has at all times had the interest of the institution at heart, and has constantly and zealously labored for the promotion and upbuilding of the University. Her labors have been conscientious and free from any purpose to wrongfully interfere in any department of the University. The most that can be said, if anything, is that the Secretary has been burdened with heavy responsibilities, not sought by her, and that she has in a measure been over-zealous in the faithful discharge of her duties.

LACK OF HARMONY.

It has been charged that there is a lack of harmony among the members of the faculty of the University, and this charge, to a certain extent, is true. We find the different members of the faculty allow personal differences, which have nothing to do with the work of the school, to creep into the affairs of the University. We find that some jealousy exists between certain members of the faculty, which interferes very materially with the welfare of the University. We believe that the different members of the faculty should lay aside all personal animosities, and unite in every work connected with the institution. Each professor should be sufficiently loyal to the institution which employs him as to lay aside every personal consideration and let nothing stand in the way of the welfare and the growth of the institution.

THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

We find that there are three or four years of preparatory work being done in the University of Wyoming. We find that of the 127 students in the preparatory department, 82 are residents of Laramie. In what corresponds to the ninth grade in high school work we find 25 students enrolled, only four of whom are from places other than Laramie; in the second preparatory year, 42 students are enrolled, 22 of whom are from Laramie; in the third preparatory year, 41 students are enrolled, 25 of whom are from Laramie. As irregular and special students in this department there are enrolled five nonresident students and fourteen who reside in the city where the University is located. We find that, having so many years of preparatory work, and such a large percentage of the total enrollment of the institution in the preparatory departments, has a tendency to detract from the college spirit which is an important factor in college life. It also hampers the teachers, and takes time which might be given to original research. We find that other state universities are gradually eliminating the preparatory work and that the high schools throughout the State of Wyoming are increasing rapidly in numbers and efficiency. We feel that the taxpayers throughout the State do not care to support a high school for the people of Laramie when the people of the State are seeking to develop high schools in their own localities.

With reference to certain charges relative to the experimental farms of the State University, to the effect that a bull owned by Mr. Otto Gramm, a Trustee, was fed at the Station for a month and no payment asked or received; that two heifers purchased by Dr. Stevens, another Trustee, from the Station, and allowed to remain there and be fed at the expense of the Station for several months without payment being exacted; that certain machinery was loaned and returned in bad repair; that other favors and accommodations were rendered to ranchmen and stockmen and others applying at the Station without compensation being exacted; that F. S. King & Co. had exhibited wool belonging to the Station as their wool at the State Fair at Douglas in 1906; and also several other trivial matters not worthy of consideration, a considerable part of this being characterized by G. E. Morton, ex-Professor of Animal Husbandry of the Station, as a specie of petty graft. The committee made a careful inquiry into and examination and investigation of the several matters complained of. The committee was unable to find anything therein which could be properly classed as "graft," or as being an intention to make a gain or advantage at the expense of the Station.

It seems to have been the practice of the Director of the Station, who assumed that his authority was supreme in the management of the Station and farms, to loan machinery to ranchmen; to perform services, feed stock, permit stock to be dipped at the Station vats, and in other ways to accommodate stockmen, ranchmen, and others applying. In some cases bills were presented which were invariably paid, but in several cases complained of no bill was ever presented. The ex-Director stated to your committee that the persons referred to had in turn rendered services to the Station which, if presented and paid, would more than offset the services rendered by the Station, and for that reason no bill was presented in such instances.

The personal examination of the Experimental Farm and Station of Animal Husbandry disclosed the fact that both were in bad condition. The stock barns and sheds are many of them in exceedingly bad repair, and in some instances dangerous to the safety of the stock, and during this investigation a fine ram worth some $250 escaped through the negligence of employes and was drowned in the river adjoining. The machinery on the farm is not properly housed and was not judiciously purchased. The Experiment Farm, with the exception of a very small part, showed distinct lack of proper management, and is largely covered with a choice collection of weeds of several varieties, showing the trouble to have been of more than one year's duration, and both farms are anything but a credit to the University. It was found that there is a wide divergence of opinion as to who was in authority at the farm and station, the Director claiming to be supreme, the Executive Committee not interfering, and the President of the University, being advised that his jurisdiction was denied, did not assume active supervision over the farms or station in any executive capacity. The result showed a decided and emphatic lack of an executive head and poor management, as evidenced by the chaotic and distracted appearnce existing at both places, which is clearly the result of an unbusiness-like administration of the same. This part is a proper subject for criticism as poor management, or lack of it, and the defects complained of should be corrected. Services rendered either for or by the Station should be paid for. The affairs of the Station should be placed under the general executive management of the President of the University as far as possible, and should be conducted in a business-like manner. The practices complained of should be discontinued, as the tendency to increase would be likely to interfere with experimental work. The other matters complained of are of not sufficient weight to merit particular mention. The committee, after fully investigating, are of the opinion that the wool exhibited by King & Co. at the State Fair was wool cut from sheep owned by them at the time of shearing and the wool owned by them at the time of exhibition.

In the examination of Prof. Morton on the matters complained of, he stated that he did not impute dishonest motives to any of the parties named, but that it was such mismanagement which, if not corrected, would ultimately lead to dishonesty, besides interfering with the work of the stations and degenerating them into mere livery or feed stables. He also admits that his charges and criticisms should properly have been submitted first for the consideration of the Board of Trustees, instead of assuming the board would decline to take action, and that his criticisms were made for the purpose of securing the correction of the defects and not with any spirit or animus against the University.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. We recommend the appointment of a Board of Trustees which shall be non-partisan, in the strictest sense of the word, and that but a bare majority be appointed from the dominant political party, believing that this course will tend to establish confidence.

2. We recommend that the President of the University be made in fact, as well as in name, the executive head of all departments, and that he be held responsible to the Board of Trustees for any mismanagement.

3. We recommend that, in the purchase of coal, printing, and supplies, and in making repairs, competitive bids be requested where the purchase or contrac amounts to more than $50, and when possible all smaller purchases or contracts should be grouped.

4. We recommend that as soon as practicable the preparatory department be reduced to two years of preparatory work.

5. We recommend that the members of the faculty should seek to come into personal contact, not only with the students in Laramie, but with the patrons of the University throughout the State, in order that more students may attend our State University.

6. We recommend that the citizens of Wyoming acquaint themselves with the fact that there is a splendid and adequate equipment and an excellent and capable corps of professors and instructors at our State University, and that those parents or guardians who do not avail themselves of these opportunities held open to their sons and daughters are neglecting a duty toward the men and women of the future. And in this same connection we recommend that the citizens of Laramie be more cautious in their criticism of the University located in their midst and reflect a greater loyalty to the only institution for higher education within our borders.

Respectfully submitted,
M. R. JOHNSTON, Chairman,

President Gramm then placed the report before the Board for action. Gamaliel Brooks was asked then what he wished in the matter and what were his views upon the subject. Gamaliel Brooks was given the floor when he arose and addressed the Board for over a half hour. In substance he said that the Committee making the report which was just read was appointed by him in compliance with the earnest request of this Board of Trustees and for this reason the report of such Committee was now before the Board for consideration. That he was happy to state that the charges made about "graft" & "misappropriation" were absolutely unfounded. That from the report there were 3 things to be specially considered graft - misappropriations & diverting the funds. In regard to graft about the coal for the University after a most searching examination by the State Examiner & the Committee who examined Faculty, Trustees & Citizens and all interested in an open court the only conclusion to be made was that the question of graft was entirely unsustained - that the recommendations about bids for coal should, however, be carried out. That the statement in regard to misappropriations was false & there was no instance whatsoever of dishonesty nor were any of the funds misappropriated - That the charges of politics entering into & influencing the purchase of supplies & making contracts was not sustained. That there was a lack of harmony in the Faculty he believed this charge was correct & it was the duty of those in authority to rectify this condition -

As to the recommendations in regard to the Preparatory Dept. - he did not think it was a question for him to enlarge upon but a matter for the Board to consider. That the entire question of the Experiment Station was a serious one & that there was a need of overhauling & it may be a reorganization.
Of the summarized six recommendations he felt that there was only one he felt he had anything personally to do - and that was the matter of a non-partisan board. In the letter of the previous statement of the Committee, it did not seem to him that politics in the University was of such a nature that the recommendation was of such a pressing nature for immediate action. Yet the matter should & ought to receive his careful consideration. The Committee says that the political influence has not been of such a nature as to injure the institution & yet they make a recommendation for a non-partisan Board - their only reason being to establish confidence in the State over the University & its affairs. That there was no reason at this time why he should be called upon, or expected to make a change in the Board of Trustees who had faithfully for a long time served the University - That the idea of such changes now must be set aside - that no resignations would be asked for as a whole body or in part - In the future minor changes might be made & it would be best & desirable sometime to make changes as terms expire so as to have the different political parties on the Board. He asked the Board to seriously consider the matter - that he did not feel any criticism from the personal knowledge of the members of the Board to vote for any of the extra Board nominations.

The Chairman that the applications for the library should be recorded under submitted bids - That recommendations 4 & 5 on for the Board to consider - Finally #5 is not ready for the Board or Governor to consider - That #6 should receive consideration - The Low Cost Low Cost. was encroaching on our Educational field by abundant advertising - That such a system works. That this Seminary should pay more attention & work harder for memberships to this Institution. That our Seminary was as fine as any in the land - according to population, but that there was a prejudice existing and it would be hard to overcome that the Seminary had failed to get the confidence of the people - that there seemed to be a subtle obstacle which might be overcome if timely statements were submitted to the public for consideration and examination - simple, clear & concise statements to be then able to meet the charges made that no information of a comprehensive nature could be obtained. - In a nutshell all of the charges made fell flat upon the Investigating Committee & that the Trustees were absolutely exonerated on every question. That he was happy to state that the charges made against Mrs Habord were not sustained That she came out with flying colors & a splendid recognition was made of her devotion & services to the Institution for which fact he was proud.

Pres. Graves asked if the Board desired to take up the recommendations as a whole or one by one. After a general discussion without action about the non attendance of members of the Board - Pr. Graves asked Mr. Fuller, Land Commissioner to explain some points relative to relinquishing University Land - & obtaining in lieu thereof certain other lands. Mr. Fuller stated that the Land Board had already relinquished University Lands in Big Horn County - some of the Agricult. College Land - and that the matter was now all tied up, waiting the decision of the Board about relinquishing. - That there were some lands in Carbon Co. in the same condition only these had not as yet been relinquished.

Mr. Fuller

Relinquishing University Lands

Mr. Crawford spoke about the possible advantage if a Dutch Co. might get control of the lands in Carbon Co. Gov. Brooks read a letter from Pt. Sanders Records relative to those in Big Horn Co. & the Shoshoni Canal in said County. Mr. Fuller's plan was to advertise these lands for sale. That a deposit of $3.00 an acre be made for those who proposed to purchase, this deposit To be in the nature of a guarantee of the purchase of same. That this Board pass a resolution relative to relinquishing the lands & authorizing the selection of lands in lieu thereof. That the $3= deposited used be lost to the minor if he failed to purchase the lands at $10= as required by resolutions provision - These lands must be under the approval of the Board of Trustees & a resolution be passed about the State Land Board authorized to do the Premises.

After much discussion the Board took a recess to take an automobile trip to the Experiment & Stock Farm (former Penitentiary) —

After recess.
