Trustees of the University of Wyoming 2025

Term of office is 6-years and trustees may be reappointed

Wyoming statute governs who may serve as a UW trustee and what trustees must do. W.S. 21-17-201 through 21-17-208 sets the board's makeup, how trustees are appointed and how long they serve, and the powers and duties of the board. Statutes regarding appointment follow below.

W.S. 21-17-201. Composition; appointment and qualifications of members generally; members ex officio; quorum.
The government of the university is vested in a board of twelve (12) trustees appointed by the governor, no two (2) of whom may be residents of the same county of the state. At least one (1) trustee shall be appointed from each appointment district pursuant to W.S. 9-1-218. Not more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the members of the board shall be registered in the same political party. The governor, the university president, the state superintendent of public instruction, the president of the Associated Students of UW, and as defined in W.S. 21-17-207, the director of the Wyoming Community College Commission are ex officio members. They may take part in discussions but cannot vote.

W.S. 21-17-202. Term; appointment of additional trustees; appointment of successors; vacancies; members of faculty disqualified; removal.
(a) The term of office of the trustees appointed is six (6) years. During each session of the legislature, the governor shall nominate, and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint successors to those trustees whose term of office has expired or will expire before the next session of the legislature. Any vacancy in the board of trustees caused by death, resignation, removal from the state or otherwise, shall be filled by appointment by the governor as provided in W.S. 28-12-101. No member of the faculty, while holding that position, shall ever be appointed a trustee. The governor may remove any trustee as provided in W.S. 9-1-202.

W.S. 21-17-203. To be body corporate; powers, duties and functions generally.
The board of trustees and their successors in office constitute a body corporate by the name of "the trustees of the University of Wyoming". They possess all the powers necessary or convenient to accomplish the objects and perform the duties prescribed by law, and shall have custody of the books, records, buildings and all other property of the university.

Wyoming Constitution, Sec. 17. Government of university.
The legislature shall provide by law for the management of the university, its lands and other property by a board of trustees, consisting of not less than seven members, to be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and the president of the university, and the superintendent of public instruction, as members ex officio, as such having the right to speak, but not to vote. The duties and powers of the trustees shall be prescribed by law.
