2. The student organization must identify itself with a sign that is clearly displayed at the site of the sale.
3. Bake sales are limited to baked homemade food items.
4. The bake sale must be registered as an event through the student organization event registration process.
5. The student organization must display a list of ingredients used for each food item either at the table or on each individual item.
6. All items being sold must be individually packaged/wrapped.
7. The UW Student organization assumes all liability associated with any bake sale.
8. Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in the loss of tabling privileges within the Wyoming Union.

D. Breezeway table guidelines:
1. Prepackaged snack items that are less than 3 oz. may be distributed for promotional purposes, after being approved by the Union Events Office.
2. All food and beverages given away at breezeway tables, other than promotional prepackaged snack items, must be purchased through UW Dining/Catering.
3. At the time the reservation or prior to the date for which the table has been reserved, the Union Events Office must be notified that food or snack items will be distributed.

E. Guidelines for meeting rooms and public spaces that can be reserved:
1. At the time of the reservation request, the sponsoring group must notify the Union Events Office if catering (defined as any food served to participants in a meeting or event) will be ordered for a meeting room or public space.
2. UW Dining/Catering has the first right of refusal for all catering in the Wyoming Union. If UW Dining/Catering cannot accommodate the event, the customer may use any university authorized caterer. A list of catering suppliers can be obtained from the Union Events Office at the time an inquiry or reservation is made for meeting space.
3. Student organizations may use any university authorized catering supplier and do not have to follow the UW Dining/Catering first right of refusal rule.
4. Authorized catering suppliers are not allowed use of the commercial kitchens in the Wyoming Union. Food warmers are available rent with the Wyoming Union Events Office and applicable to the University Fee Book.

F. Guidelines for public spaces that cannot be reserved:
1. Serving food to the public in a space that cannot be reserved is not allowed.

G. Office guidelines:
   a. Food that is intended for individual consumption or for a closed group (such as immediate office/department members) with no general public access or invitations is allowed in offices.
   b. Food for the public, open houses, and special events must follow the UW Dining/Catering first right of refusal guideline. If UW Dining/Catering cannot accommodate the request, then the office can make arrangements with another university authorized catering supplier.

Sec. 11. Damage to Wyoming Union Property:

A. Purpose: To hold users responsible for damage done to the facility and Wyoming Union property beyond typical wear and tear.

B. Guidelines:
   1. Individuals or organizations using the Wyoming Union property and facilities shall be financially responsible for any damages that result from their activities.
   2. Damage assessment shall be based on replacement and/or repair costs determined by University of Wyoming Operations.
   3. Individuals or organizations must clean up after their events to avoid any excess cleaning charges as indicated by the University Fee Book.
   4. Incidents of damage may be reported to UW Police for reporting or criminal proceedings.

Sec. 12. Use of the Building Exterior:

A. Purpose: To preserve the appearance of the building and its role in enhancing the aesthetic value of the University of Wyoming campus.

B. Guidelines:
   1. Use of the Wyoming Union exterior for signage, promotion or display materials is not permitted, except as noted in Section 4, H. Requests for one-time exceptions may be submitted to the Director of CSIL or their designee.
2. Climbing, repelling, and related activities on the walls of the structure are prohibited.
3. The use of rollerblades, skates, and bikes on the exterior surfaces (entrances, rails, picnic tables, etc.) is prohibited.

Sec. 13. Leased Areas:

A. Purpose: To encourage communication, positive relations, and mutual understanding between the Wyoming Union and entities which occupy space within the facility on a more permanent basis, the following policies provide guidance on establishing written agreements.

B. Guidelines:
1. Any non-campus organizations or individuals which occupy space within the Wyoming Union and are not under the direct supervision of the Director of CSIL shall be required to sign a lease agreement. The Student Involvement and Leadership Council with a majority vote, has the authority to recommend lease agreements.
2. University departments which occupy space but are not under the direct supervision of the Director of CSIL shall be required to sign an agreed upon memo of understanding (MOU).
3. The authority to approve and sign lease agreements and MOUs is the responsibility of the designated University Officer.
4. Lease agreements and MOUs will clearly outline the relationships and corresponding responsibilities between the parties entering into the agreement.

Sec. 14. Wheeled Vehicles:

A. Purpose: To set expectations and limitations of the use of wheeled vehicles in the Wyoming Union which could endanger the health and safety of its patrons and cause unnecessary wear on the facility.

B. Guidelines:
1. Rollerblades, skateboards, and other small-wheeled modes of transportation may not be used within the Wyoming Union.
2. Bikes may not be brought into the Wyoming Union.
3. Wheelchairs and other forms of disability assistance are exceptions to this policy.
4. Chaining or locking of bikes to handrails inside or outside of the Wyoming Union is prohibited.

Sec. 15. Smoking Policy:

A. Purpose: To provide an environment conducive to the health and welfare of its patrons.

B. Guidelines:
1. The Wyoming Union shall adhere to UW Regulation 6-6, Regulating Smoking
2. Smoking in any form is not allowed within the Wyoming Union.
3. Entrances into the Wyoming Union shall display signage which clearly expresses this policy.
4. Smoking is permitted in the following:
   a. Areas outside the Wyoming Union that are a reasonable distance from doors, operable windows, or ventilation systems.

Sec. 16. Ticket Office:

A. Purpose: To provide ticketing services for customers and campus entities coordinating events for the campus community.

B. Guidelines:
1. The Wyoming Union will sell tickets designated for students and non-students. Ticket prices are determined by the program sponsor.
2. Students shall be defined as University of Wyoming students who pay consolidated student fees.
3. Service fees shall be charged for all ticket sales except for free tickets distributed for student organization events.
4. The Wyoming Union Information Desk and Ticket Office will adhere to ticket distribution and sales guidelines for athletic and theatre events as established by the Athletic and Fine Arts Departments.

Sec. 17. Lost and Found:

A. Purpose: To allow patrons to claim items that are lost in the Wyoming Union and adjacent campus.

B. Guidelines:
1. Lost and found items found in or near the Wyoming Union can be collected at the Information Desk while the Wyoming Union is open. UWPD will pick up unclaimed items monthly where they are then stored. For more information or to inquire about a lost item, call the Information Desk at 307-766-3160 or UWPD Lost & Found at 307-766-5179.
