

Figure 5-6. The roar of the Red deer serves to ward off rivals and signal prospective females during the breeding season.