

SHARE:

Join Our Email List

Monthly Newsletter

August 2021

Persevering Through the 2021 Academic Year: A Needed Time for Celebrating One Another

For the June webinar, the focus of Inspire Teaching and Learning and Harmony SEL switched to the celebration of all that has been put forth by educators and students in the past year as well as the hopes for the year ahead.

The moderator for this panel presentation was Dr. Sara Rimm-Kaufman (Commonwealth Professor of Education from the University of Virginia).

READ MORE

Disability Justice in Education: Confronting Disability Myths

For the June First Thursday Webinar hosted by the National Network for Educational Renewal (NNER), the focus was on what disability justice looked like in education. Wyoming School-University Partnership (WSUP) Coordinator Sean Moran spoke about his professional, scholastic, and personal relationship with the idea of disability justice in education.

READ MORE

Wallop Civic Engagement K-12 Virtual Library Continues to Grow

An important free resource for social studies educators continues to grow in the state of Wyoming, and that resource is the Wallop Civic Engagement K-12 Curriculum Catalog. This resource was highlighted earlier in the year in a WSUP e-newsletter, and has utilized the 2021 year to make advancements in its curriculum offerings and use feedback from Wyoming educators to shape new content development.

READ MORE

Delving into Wyoming Professional Development Opportunities

Please check out some of these wonderful opportunities for educators interested in building professional skills and connecting with others around the state.

READ MORE

We encourage you to send this newsletter to your network contacts.

If you would like to subscribe to the WSUP Newsletter, click below to complete the WSUP Newsletter subscription form:

SUBSCRIBE NOW!

Wyoming School-University Partnership | WSUP Homepage

