

SHARE:

Join Our Email List

Wyoming School-University Partnership

December 2021 Newsletter

National Network for Educational Renewal 2021 Conference

From November 3rd to the 5th, the National Network for Educational Renewal (NNER) hosted their conference in Cincinnati, Ohio, bringing together member organizations to discuss the collaboration and partnerships that have been key in these difficult times.

READ MORE

Ellbogen Grant Awarded to Fund Research Study in Wyoming K12 Innovative Programs

The John P. "Jack" Ellbogen Foundation has awarded two years of grant funding to the Wyoming School-University Partnership to research Wyoming programs in K-12 schools that assist in building skills for post-secondary success.

READ MORE

Emotions Matter For All Learners

In the October Inspire and SEL Harmony webinar, there was a discussion of what it meant for all students to be included in social-emotional learning (SEL) conversations. Dr. Christina Cipriano, an assistant professor at Yale Child Study Center and Director of Research at Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence, shared her decade of research into this concept.

READ MORE

We encourage you to send this newsletter to your network contacts.

If you received this email from a colleague, click below to subscribe!

SUBSCRIBE NOW!

Wyoming School-University Partnership | WSUP Homepage

